Brewers' Injunction Suit.WILL PASS ON LAW'S CONSTITUTIONALITYLegality of War-Time Law Is Questioned in Petition —
Status of Inaction to Continue Five Days.Prosecution of persons charged with violating the war-time prohibition act here was temporarily stopped by Judge Pollock in the United States District Court today after he had heard arguments in the injunction suits brought by two brewing associations and three independent breweries of St. Louis to restrain the United States District Attorney and the Collector of Internal Revenue from enforcing the act.Judge Pollock, after granting each side five days in which to submit briefs, said he would expect both sides, by a gentleman's agreement, to "hold conditions in their present status until the case is disposed of."The Judge said he would make a decision as quickly as possible and that the constitutionality of the wartime prohibition law would be the most important point on which he would pass.

Pending Cases Cited.

With reference to holding conditions in their present status, United States District Attorney Hendry told the court that earlier today he had issued informations against two sallooneers, charging them with selling beverages containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol. He asked if the court expected him to file a separate action in these cases and in the issuing of other informations charging violation of the act. Judge Pollock replied that he would expect that no further proceedings in these and other cases be taken until he should hand down his decision.The District Attorney told the Court other informations were being prepared and he asked if the Court's order was that he go no further with these informations at this time."You will go no further," replied Judge Pollock.Judge Pollock, after leaving the courtroom, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter that his ruling did not stop investigations by the Internal Revenue Collector or the police as to violations of the war-time prohibition act.The Judge said he expected the Government to go no further with prosecutions and the brewers to comply with the letter of the law until his decision is handed down. He said that if the briefs were filed promptly he would hand down a decision in a week or 10 days from now.In view of the Court's indication that the most important point for consideration was the constitutionality of the law, attorneys for the Government shortened their arguments so as to confine them to constitutional grounds.

Judge Discusses Law.

Early in the arguments Judge Pollock asked if it was to be understood that the wartime prohibition act was passed under the authority of the national prohibition amendment to the Constitution.Charles A. Houts, counsel for the brewers, said he would submit arguments to show it was not so passed and had no connection with constitutional prohibitions.Judge Pollock said he had understood that the wartime prohibition
act was passed under the authority of the national prohibition amendment to the Constitution."But it may be different now," he said. "This is a different country from what it was a few years ago."Indicating points on which he desired to hear arguments, the Judge said: "Why was it thought necessary to pass this prohibitory legislation? What right had the Government to step in and make laws for all the States, if there is any State Government left?"

States' Rights Cited.

Judge Pollock asked if the State of Missouri had made any attempt through legal proceedings to question the right of Congress to pass and enforce the war-time prohibition law. Houts replied it had not and that no such action had been taken by any state.Judge Pollock then said: "It is time for the state to wake up, or Congress will usurp all their rights."The informations mentioned by the District Attorney were issued by Senator Reed of Missouri professed to see in the result of yesterday's President when he said that Senators who favored amendments, but voted for reservations instead, were like "snapping turtles" or like dogs with their heads in a crack not knowing whether to go forward or back.Reed then said he would have to remaining before the Senate likely will be eliminated before adjournment. With all the amendments out of the way, a clear sweep will be effected for consideration of the long list of measures.Reed spoke in support of the La Follette amendment to strike out the labor section. He told the Senate he intended to submit a measure for an advisory vote of the people before the treaty was ratified.The District Attorney told the Court other informations were being

White House attaches said this probably was the first time in his life that a President had congratulated a candidate of the opposite party on his election to office.

The telegram follows:

HOW OFFICIALS AT WASHINGTON VIEW ELECTION RESULTS

Administration Gratified at the Upholding of President's Stand on Police Strike in Massachusetts.

NEW JERSEY VOTE DISAPPOINTS G. O. P.

Republicans, However, Are Pleased Over Gains in the Maryland and Kentucky Contests.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE, A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Everybody is happy over the election in Massachusetts. New Jersey, Kentucky and Maryland, everybody, including Astor, was standing by the president's stand on police strike in Massachusetts.

The president's stand was unmitigately the White House's. It was more joyful over the victory in Massachusetts of Gov. Coolidge, Republican, than it was over the remarkable conversion of a Republican plurality of 55,000 in New Jersey into a Democratic victory of at least 10,000. The president himself sent a message of congratulation to the Republican Governor describing his conversion as a victory for law and order.

Party exultation gave way entirely to a sense of abiding satisfaction that in the one election—Massachusetts—where law and order was the big issue—the forces of stability compelled an overwhelming victory. The Democratic organization had not only scored the Wilson administration by seeking to align certain hyphenate voters on the League of Nations question, but went far as to attack Gov. Coolidge, who had method in which he handled the recent police strike, a method that President Wilson had publicly supported in his speech at Billings, Mont.

It was suggested that large bodies of Democratic voters must have joined the Republicans in increasing Mr. Coolidge's 1918 majority from 17,000 to 55,000 this year.

As for New Jersey, the White House was plainly satisfied.

For Chairman Hays of the Republican National Committee had addressed a letter to the Republican State Chairman saying that Republican National success could only be made certain by Republican victory in the State.

Hay's Wanted New Jersey.

"Let the Republican victory in your state (New Jersey) be overwhelming," wrote Chairman Hays, "with a majority so tremendous that from New Jersey will go a voice reassuring the Nation in most emphatic terms that the Republican party is moving unfalteringly into that complete control which the people want and the country needs so much."

Unquestionably the result in New Jersey was disappointing to the Republicans, but they excused it on the ground that it was a wet and dry fight, and that the conspicuous gains in Kentucky and Maryland, where normally the Democrats are predominant, were worth thinking about. Certainly the wet and dry issue worked different ways in different States. In New Jersey where the Democratic candidate was outspoken on the wet side, considerable assistance was given him by the President's veto of the prohibition enforcement bill while in Kentucky where the Democrats nominated a dry candidate, the Republicans swept the State by nearly 15,000. Telegrams received here from Louisville quote the Republican managers in Kentucky as saying the league of nations was not an issue in that State.

Most significant incidentally was the result in Maryland where the Republicans were unquestionably large. There seems no doubt that while a Democrat is in the lead for Governor had a stronger political personality been nominated on the Republican ticket the result would now be in doubt. These gains by Republicans in the normally Democratic States of Maryland and Kentucky were very comforting to the Republicans.

Conceding that Gov. Coolidge's victory in Massachusetts was a victory for law and order, the Republicans pointed to the fact that he held the Republican vote nicely which he won a year ago though that occasion a Democratic Senator was also elected.

Wets in the capital were jubilant

Lady Astor Quells Hecklers Who Howled Down Husband

Epigrams and Retorts Feature Speeches of Woman Candidate for Commons, Who Predicts Election.

By the Associated Press.

PLYMOUTH, Nov. 5.—Meetings in different sections of the city were addressed last night by the three candidates for the House of Commons seat—Lady Astor, Isaac Foot, and W. T. Gay, Labor.

At one of them the correspondent found 300 persons huddled in a small school house, and scores outside clamoring for admission. Viscount Astor was standing at the entrance, talking with, and chided good naturedly nearly 50 residents—all women.

She asked one of them how she was feeling, and the woman answered, "Middling," whereupon Lady Astor recalled that in Virginia they frequently said: "Just loafin' and achin' round."

She invited each to attend a women's meeting to be held in the afternoon and asked each to vote for her. Many of them promised to do both.

Lady Astor next visited a tenement house, where, standing in the dirty roadway, she talked for several minutes with women and children leaning over the balconies fronting each other on the four stories of the building, from which much washing hung. She invited questions and the invitation was complied with in considerable volume. Then she departed.

There were more laughter and applause and Lady Astor responded to her speech. When the interruptions got busy she exclaimed vehemently: "Don't give me any of your sass! I shall come right down there to you. What you fellows want is to stop yelling and get to work."

For Vote on Prohibition.

One question related to her attitude on prohibition, and she answered: "No one can make me say that I drink every day, anyone can."

With reference to her attitude on various outstanding questions, Lady Astor informed the Associated Press that she was for Federal deviation from the only practical solution of the Irish question."

She thinks free trade a great thing if all nations adopt it. She declined to express an opinion on a levy on capital as a means of relieving national finances on the ground that she was not a political economist. If it is feasible there is nothing she would favor more than the seizure of all war profits, she said.

St. Charles Gets 465 Members First Day — Mitchell County, Texas, First of District to Reach Quota.

Two contributions of Liberty Bonds, one being a $50 bond, the other a $100 one, have been made by business men to the Third Roll Call of the Red Cross here, it was announced today.

At all that is being asked, in the present membership campaign is "a heart and a dollar," the donors of the bonds are credited with having unusually large hearts. Their names are being withheld by the management of the campaign, at their request.

Former service men who have first-hand knowledge of the work of the Red Cross, are enrolling in large numbers.

Tabulations of the results of the two business days of the canvass have been completed. The receipts have been large, but to keep up with the start which has been made, more workers are needed.

Oliver F. Richards, manager of the campaign asks that women volunteers for the house-to-house canvass. Campaign headquarters are in the Third National Bank building.

Want Signs Illuminated.

He requested also that subscribers display the Red Cross emblem in their windows, and that business houses, especially drug stores and corner establishments, illuminate their Red Cross signs with electric lights.

Mrs. Frank V. Hammer, chairman of the St. Louis Chapter of the Red Cross, was one of the speakers at the Members' Conference luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce at Hotel Statler today.

Eight St. Louis women, who worked for the Red Cross overseas, are taking part in the noon-day district, riding on trucks, appealing for subscriptions. The truck under the direction of Miss Isabel Skinner, one of the local canteen committee workers who served overseas are Mrs. Alice Hall, Mrs. Ethel Boogher, Misses Helen Day, Clara Post, Elizabeth Hunt, Ann Farrar, Ruth Barry, Margaret Bleibinger and Marie Wrape.

100 on 100 per cent List.

About 100 St. Louis firms have reported a 100 per cent Roll Call subscription from their employees. The firm names recently added to the 100 per cent list are:

St. Louis Brass Mfg. Co.; Orcutt Storage Co.; McClure & Co.; Mercantile Trust Co.; Mortgage Trust Co.; Aero-Cruiser Corporation of America; American Educational Society; Haskins & Sells; Touché-Niven & Co.; W. T. Ferguson Lumber Co.; Ferguson-McKinney Dry Goods Co.; Whitelaw Bros. Chemical Co.; T. J. Reid Shoe Co.; Well Clothing Co.; American Multigraph Sales Co.; American Paper Products Co.; Bettmann-Kleinhaber Art Co.; General Shoe Co.; National Candy Co.; Nixon Jones Printing Co.; Newberry-Burdick-Scott Garment Co.; Van-Calvert Paint Co.; Geneva Optical Co.; International Time Record Co.; Henry A. Well; Royal Typewriter Co.; Southwestern Div. Red Cross Roll Call; Southwestern Division of the Red Cross; St. Louis & San Francisco R. R.; Swope Shoe Co.; State Mutual Investment Co.; St. Louis Symphony Orchestra; St. Louis Chapter Red Cross Roll Call; Wm. Sticker & Sons Garment Co.; St. Louis Lightning Rod Co.; Shelton Panama Hat Co.; W. H. Markham & Co.; Mauran-Russell & Crowell; Mississippi Valley Trust Co.; New York Life Ins. Co.; National Lumber Mfg. Co.; Nelson's Restaurant; Twinplex Sales Co.

In St. Charles 455 members were enrolled the first day, according to a report from Miss Olive Rauch, chairman.

A telegram received at headquarters of the Southwestern division today said that Mitchell County, Tex., in the northwest part of the State, had set for itself a quota of 100 members and that it had exceeded in the first day's canvass. The county, which has about 9000 inhabitants, claims the distinction of being the first county to "go over" in the Southwestern district, which includes Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas. In this part of the district, no quotas smaller than the number of inhabitants are being fixed.

1100 in W. U. EVENING CLASSES

Enrollment for the evening section of Washington University extension courses reached the 1100 mark yesterday, and for Saturday classes the registration is 172. The evening total is expected to be substantially increased.

Last year, which was the fourth year of this department of the university, the total enrollment for evening classes was 550. This was 50 per cent greater than the preceding year. Yesterday's figures represent an even 100 per cent increase over 1918.

MAXIMUM VOTE DESIRED IN SCHOOL TAX ELECTION BY CHRIST CHURCH

Judges, Who Will Decide
Who May Cast Ballots,
Will Admit as Many as Possible.

The policy of election officials, in next Tuesday's special election on the question of raising the school tax from 60 to 75 cents on the $100 valuation, is to admit as large a vote as possible.

Only taxpayers will be eligible to vote, but the Election Board has notified the Judges of election in each precinct that they have the sole power to determine who shall vote, and that written evidence of being a taxpayer is not required. "In the absence of evidence to the contrary," the election Judges are informed, "a voter's statement under oath that he is a taxpayer will be sufficient evidence of his right to vote."

Taxpayer Defined.

The Election Board has obtained, from Associate City Counselor Hamilton, an opinion answering the question who is a taxpayer, in the meaning of the law. The opinion is, in substance, that anyone who has actually paid taxes in the year 1918 is a taxpayer, and that the voter must be a resident of the city, own property, taxation, the state income tax and the merchants' and manufacturers' license tax. License fees, such as those paid for automobiles and dogs, are not taxes within the meaning of the law, and the payment of water rates or special taxes does not qualify a man to vote in the special election.

The taxpayer must not be delinquent in the payment of the taxes he has paid. The voter need not have paid his 1918 taxes since a period of nearly twelve months remains in which these taxes may be paid without delinquency.

First Instruction to Stand.

The Election Board, it was said today at its offices, will not send Hamilton's opinion to the precinct judges, but will stand on its original instructions, which are that the judges have the sole power to determine who shall vote. In case of inquiry by the precinct judges, Hamilton's opinion will probably be quoted.

80,000 Campaign Buttons.

Eighty thousand buttons were sent to the schools today, to be distributed among the children, who will wear them during the remainder of the campaign. They bear the picture of a school house and the date of the election.

For reasons of safety no children in grades below the seventh will participate in the automobile parade Saturday. A team of students of the High Teachers' College will participate.

A contest to choose the best three student speakers from among the four-minute speakers who have been assisting in the campaign will be held tomorrow night at Soldan High School. Fourteen students will participate, representing 14 classes, and there is keen rivalry. A jury will pick the winners. Musical numbers will intersperse between the speeches.

Automobiles in the downtown district will be "tagged" Friday and Saturday by 100 high school boys, who will attach cards to them urging taxpayers to support the tax increase proposal.

Reception for Patrons.

A reception and mass meeting for patrons will be held tonight at the Eugene Field School. Students will be at their desks from 7 to 8 p.m. and their parents may see them at their studies. Claude E. Benjamin and H. J. Gerling will speak.

Other schools where meetings will be held today and tonight, and some of the speakers who will be heard, are:

Woodward School, 8:15 p.m., mothers' meeting.

Teaman High School, 7:45 p.m., H. A. Rosskopf, Rabbi Leon Harrison and Assistant Superintendent Bryan.

Central High School, 8 p.m., Dr. James Gray.

Adams School, 8:30 p.m., four-minute speakers.

Harrison School, 8:30 p.m., Paul J. Wielandy.

Shane School, 8:30 p.m., Mrs. C. L. Pasemore.

Scruggs School, 8:30 p.m., Mrs. George Gellhorn.

Meeting at Clark School.

A meeting at the Clark School last night was addressed by Superintendent Withers and Assistant Superintendent Knox, whose children attend that school, and by Rabbi Harrison and former Senator Wilfrid. The pupils sang a song on how they make power for the tune of "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles." A resolution was adopted endorsing the proposed increase.

Patrons of the William Stix School adopted a resolution endorsing the proposed increase. Similar action was taken at a mass meeting at Rock Springs School, 2374 Sarpy Street.

EFFORT TO DOUBLE ENDOWMENT BEGUN BY CHRIST CHURCH

Workers Hope to Obtain Additional $200,000 for Fund as Part of Centennial Celebration.

A campaign to double the present endowment of Christ Church Cathedral has been started, as the most important part of the Cathedral's centennial celebration. More than $100,000 already has been pledged, it was stated today, this amount including the subscriptions of the Cathedral parish and other Episcopal parishes.

The campaign, it was said, will go to immediate improvements, the rest to the endowment fund. All the money given by parishes and persons outside the Cathedral parish will go into the permanent endowment.

Parish Pledges $68,000.

Members of the Cathedral parish have pledged $68,000. Part of this will go to immediate improvements, the rest to the endowment fund. All the money given by parishes and persons outside the Cathedral parish will go into the permanent endowment.

Parish meetings will be held in churches of the diocese, beginning with a meeting at St. John's, 3665 Arsenal street.

The song service held by present members of the Cathedral choir last night was attended by an audience which filled the church. The reinforced choir had 117 voices, 82 of these being adults, so that the boy singers of today have to do their best to keep from being heard above the voices of the upper for the past and present choristers preceded the song service, and an address setting forth the history of the choir was delivered by Lynn D. Paine, The Rev. Henry W. Mizner and Herbert D. Condie also spoke.

The closing meeting of the centennial will be the community service mass meeting in Moolah Temple Sunday night.

against Joseph Bassil of 4401 Clayton avenue and V. T. Butts of 1 and 3 St. George street. Each was charged with violating the enforcement law by selling beer containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol. The informations were sworn to by Patrick J. Butler, a deputy collector of internal revenue.

These were the first informations done without the diocese back of it.

Wider community service. Only one prosecution is pending. Last year one of the Cathedral staff gave five days a week for six months to furthering the interests of the Children's Code legislation at Jefferson City; a great piece of constructive work and done entirely at the expense of the Cathedral parish.

The member of the Cathedral staff who did the legislative work mentioned was Canon C. E. Remick, who has performed similar service to the past.

issued under the new act, and to be followed by others, it was announced. The penalty fixed by the law, for conviction, is imprisonment for not less than 30 days or more than six months, with a fine of $100 to $1000.

"The human stomach could not at any time hold sufficient fluid of beer of one-half of 1 per cent alcohol," Dr. Marshall's affidavit states, "nor could a person drink sufficient thereof to produce a condition of intoxication."

The proposed procedure, he said, would be for the brewers to wait until indictments or informations had been returned and then defend themselves in court. He also asked for dismissal on the ground that the war is not over.

Houts, representing the brewers, argued that the protest that the war is not over is ridiculous. He asserted that in passing the enforcement law Congress overstepped its powers in attempting to control the brewing industry.

Chemist Declares Intoxication From .5 Per Cent Beer Is Impossible.

Statement that a person, to become intoxicated, would have to drink 21 1/2 quarts of 1 1/2 per cent beer at one time, or 17 times the capacity of his stomach, is made by Dr. John Marshall, a professor of chemistry and toxicology at the University of Pennsylvania, in an affidavit filed yesterday in United States District Court here in support of the application of St. Louis brewers for an injunction against the enforcement of the wartime prohibition act.

Dr. Marshall also declares that he tested the effects of 2.75 per cent beer on three men, each man drinking one quart, 8 1/2 fluid ounces, within one minute, thus imbibing 14 ounces of beer.

The establishment of a preaching canon. There should be at the Cathedral a preacher of commanding ability. A man in the very front rank in the American pulpit who would be relieved of all parish duties and give himself and his message to the churches of the diocese and to the city.

An extension of service in the downtown community of a great circle already 1000 boys and girls and women, passing through the classes and clubs in the Cathedral school each week. These include Catholic and Jew as well as Protestant. It is a ministry to the city and State in a peculiar sense and is too big a task to be quoted.

In following a policy which will admit as many votes as possible for the special election, the Election Board is in accord with the Board of Education, which is striving through the school children, to get a full vote next Tuesday.

The St. Louis branch of the Nation Federation of Federal Employes, which has 900 members here, last night adopted a resolution indorsing the proposed tax increase, and applying the demands of the teachers for more money.

DECIDES PUBLIC CONFIDENCE IN BUSINESS IS ESSENTIAL

National Vigilance Committee Chairman Addresses the Advertising Club

Sidener, chairman of the National Vigilance Committee, a department of the Associated Advertising Clubs of America, who addressed the Advertising Club of St. Louis at a luncheon yesterday at Hotel Statler. A number of retailers, bankers and brokers were present by special invitation.

After referring to the important part played by business men in the war, the speaker said that the same spirit should be continued. The men of business must protect the confidence of the public in business just as it helped protect the confidence of the public in the United States Government during the war period.

The biggest advertisement, he said, is not the satisfied customer, but the dissatisfied one. The latter will do more talking than the former, he said.

Every time a group of people are swindled in a wild cat stock promotion scheme the legitimate investment of the public is said to dwelt on the virtue of honest advertising, and urged his audience to support the Better Business Bureau in its effort to win for business the confidence of the buying public.

HUSBAND OF SEER IS CONVICTED OF $14,000 SWindle

East Alton (Ill.) Farmer Tells of Paying Joseph Pelinski to Invoke "Spiritual Aid" in Treasure Hunt.

HOPED TO FIND GOLD BURIED ON HIS FARM

Witness, 77, Gives Detailed Account of Transactions—Defendant Files Motion for New Trial.

Joseph Pelinski, 59 years old, of 319 Wellsman avenue, a former St. Louis saloon keeper, was found guilty of having been in charge of operating a confidence game in connection with the swindling of Weert Bauer, an East Alton farmer, who paid $14,000 for spiritual aid in finding a fortune in gold alleged to have been buried on his farm.

The jury fixed Pelinski's punishment at an indeterminate penitentiary term of one to 10 years, but sentence was deferred when his attorneys filed a motion for a new trial.

Pelinski's wife, Mrs. Augusta Pelinski, a retired fortune teller, and their daughter, Mrs. Clara Fiedler, are awaiting trial on the same charge.

Gov. Gardner has refused to honor regulations for Mrs. Pelinski and Mrs. Fiedler on the ground they had taken no money from Bauer on Illinois soil and therefore were not amenable to Illinois law. They were indicted on the theory that Pelinski, in taking money from Bauer, acted as their agent.

Went to Reveal Hiding Place.

Bauer testified that he paid money to Pelinski in Alton at various times on Pelinski's representation that Mrs. Pelinski had the power to induce the spirits to reveal the hiding place of the buried fortune. Though 77 years old, Bauer gave evidence of a remarkable memory in detailing his transactions with Pelinski. He testified that Pelinski told him he must keep no records of their dealings as this would interfere with the work of the spirits.

On behalf of Mrs. Bauer gave an account of the dates, hours and places where he had met Pelinski. One of the payments to Pelinski, he said, was made in the chambers of the Alton City Court.

Pelinski attempted to establish an alibi and testified he had never been in Illinois. This was offset by testimony of Louis Schlaifly, an Alton banker, that he once saw Pelinski talking with Bauer in Alton. Denying that he had ever taken money from Bauer in Alton or elsewhere, Pelinski said "the business" was all in the hands of his wife.

One of the accusations alleged to have been made to Bauer was that it was necessary to provide funds for Mrs. Pelinski to go to Florida to obtain crystal clear water in which to divine the whereabouts of the treasure. Mrs. Pelinski was in St. Petersburg, Fla., when Bauer made his complaint last March. She was arrested on her return to St. Louis in May.

NEGRO, 16, CAUGHT ENTERING WINDOW, ADMITS 7 BURGLARIES

Watches, Umbrella, Bicycle, Dresses and Money Included in Loot Enumerated.

Eugene Morton, 16 years old, a negro, on 3125 Lawton avenue, according to his own admission, was about to commit his eighth burglary in three weeks when motor cycle policemen yesterday afternoon caught him crawling through a back window at the home of Mrs. Lulu Thomas, 19 North Cardinal avenue. The policemen followed him into the house and found him hiding in the bathroom. Morton said that on Oct. 20 he stole six watches, an umbrella and a pistol from the jewelry store of Robert Fritzsche, 2716 Market street. Six days later he stole dresses valued at $50 from the dry goods store of Mrs. Ada West, 3294 Laclade avenue.

On Oct. 30 he stole trousers and shoes from a room in the Grand Central Hotel, Jefferson avenue and Pine street; a bicycle from the home of George Lesser, 3019 Lawton avenue, and broke into a Kroger grocery at 2200 Laclade avenue. He was sighted again from the store by the approach of policemen.

Last Sunday he set the electric piano in motion at the saloon of William Holzhausen, 2725 Market street, after stealing $7 from the piano cash box. He also helped himself to cigarettes and cigars. The following day he stole a bicycle from the home of Hutchinson, 2318 Lawton avenue.

He was taken to the Children's Home to be held for the Juvenile Court.

An Unusual Purchase and Sale of New Hand-Embroidered Tricotine and Braided Serge Frocks

Third Floor $18.75 Dress Shop

(Regular $25 and $29.75 Dresses)

This large group of Tricotine and Serge Frocks was purchased from one of the largest New York manufacturers at special price concessions, enabling us to offer them to you at decided savings.

You will find this a splendid opportunity to purchase stylish Frocks for street or business wear at an unusually moderate price.

There are styles and sizes for both large and small women. Five different smart models are shown, excellently tailored. The attractive hand-embroidery designs and the unusual arrangement of braid-trimming is especially noteworthy.

The Frocks are all made on straight lines, with narrow tie belts, snug-fitting sleeves and round or square necks. Some are effectively trimmed with silk braid or stitching. Others are elaborately embroidered in floss. One model has tiny self buttons down the back, another has buttons down the side.

The tricotine and serge used in these Frocks are the same quality as we show in much higher-priced Dresses.

ENGINEER REPORTS POWER CONTRACTS FAVORABLE TO U.R.

Receiver Announces Result of Inquiry by Chicago
Company That Operates Public Utilities.

SAYS UNION ELECTRIC IS ASKING TOO MUCH

Report Holds, However, Increase Is Due—Declares Keokuk Dam Should Get $430,850 a Year More.

The result of an inquiry into the wisdom and profit to the United Railways of contracts by which it receives hydro-electric energy from the Mississippi River Power Co. (Keokuk dam) through the Union Electric Light and Power Co. was announced today by Receiver Rolla Wells. The inquiry was made by the H. M. Bylesby Co. of Chicago, operators of public utilities through W. B. Rittenhouse, an engineer it assigned, who, in the opinion of the receiver, was a disinterested investigator.

The conclusions of the report are based upon figures which Rittenhouse accepted as a proper valuation of the property of the Keokuk dam and of the Union Electric Light and Power Co. and the proportions of each he fixed as on property he considered in the service of supplying water power in St. Louis. A further premise is that each utility is entitled to 8 per cent profit on its contracts.

The substance of the conclusions follow:

1. That the Keokuk dam is entitled to approximately $430,850 more a year than it now receives under contracts for hydro-electric energy sent to St. Louis. This is an increase which is $130,850 greater than the dam company had indicated its willingness to accept in a tentative agreement which it has made with the Union company.

2. That the Union Electric Light and Power Co. is entitled to receive from the United Railways for that portion of Keokuk power it takes from the railroads $128,857 more each year than it now receives, which in turn is $40,153 less than the Union now is asking of the Railways.

Subtracting the added cost to the Union company of the power which it furnishes the railroads, the net added return suggested for the Union company is $3000 a year.

2. That the possession of water power contracts by the Railways is saving them $430,850 annually over the cost of an equal amount of power steam generated in the most improved plant that could be erected at this time.

This cost was based upon the present high prices of labor, material and coal.

Question Definitely Answered.

The comment of Albert T. Perkins, manager for the receiver, on the third conclusion of the report, is: "The much-mooted question of the value of the Railways water power contracts is definitely answered, the report stating: 'It is clear that the middle electric light and power co. has made a favorable contract, the benefits of which also will accrue to the United Railways, since the purchase price of power constitutes by far the greatest item in the Union Electric Light and Power Co.'s charge to the United Railways."

The power contracts are one of the chief points of contention in the suit of John W. Seaman of New York, a preferred stockholder, which resulted in the railroads receivership. Seaman alleges that the contracts were entered into by the railroads, made by an interlocking directorate for the ultimate benefit, not of the railroads, but of its controlling company, the North American, through a middle company which charged a profit exceeding 20 per cent for its services of receiving the power from Keokuk and delivering it to the railroads.

The middle company has passed into the control of the Union company and one of the chief points of the receivership petition is that the receiver be instructed to determine the advisability of canceling its power contracts through the Union company and negotiating them with the dam company direct.

Terms of Contract.

The power contract of the Union company calls for the delivery annually of 65,000 horsepower of energy. Of this amount, 30,000 horsepower is delivered in turn by the Union company to the railroads. The bargain contract price to the Union company is $1,078,200 a year. A provision of the contract is that it is understood that the price shall be adjusted on a basis of the price of Illinois coal. One of the chief criticisms of the contract has been that coal is not a proper basis for determining the cost of water power and that it forever denied St. Louis the just benefits of water power, which is inherently cheap.

The first adjustment date under the contract was Aug. 1, 1919. The Union company decided that it would not accept a readjustment on the basis of the price of coal, because coal had been sent skyward by the war. Enforcement of the coal clause would have been an increase of 11½ per cent in the price of power, the Bylesby report states.

Increased Price Authorized.

The Union company and Keokuk dam agreed, in lieu of the coal clause, to an increase of approximately $250,000 a year in the price which the Union company would pay the Keokuk company. A Federal Court order recently authorized the railroads to pay an increased price for water power to the Union company, based on its proportionate share of the $250,000 increase to be paid by the Union company to Keokuk.

The Union company now has petitioned the Missouri Public Service Commission for permission to charge the railroads its proportion of the $250,000 increased cost plus $48,400 a year, which the Union company declares represents its increased cost in handling railways power due to high cost of labor and material.

The Bylesby inquiry was instituted partially to determine the justice of that petition.

The Bylesby company, in beginning its investigation, abandoned coal as the basis of charge for water power and substituted cost of production plus a fair return on money invested.

It fixed the value of the Keokuk dam at $2,007,350, based upon a valuation by the Illinois Public Service Commission, and allocated $12,476.73 as the value of the dam property in the service of the Union Electric Co., and fixed 8 per cent as a just return to the dam company. On this basis it fixed $1,509,650 as the price the Union company should pay for water power annually.

The report points out, however, that the Union company's tentative bargain with the Keokuk is for power at a rate which is 10 per cent above the valuation taken in $1.19 per cent return, which leads the Bylesby company to its conclusion that the contract is a good one for the Union company.

Union Electric Valuation.

The valuation of the property of the Union Electric Co. needed to handle water power is placed at $947,817. The Railways uses 46.2-per cent of the water power and 15½ per cent of the earnings to report states that the investment on which the Union company is entitled to make return from its contracts to give the Railways power is 14.2 per cent of that valuation, or $44,215.

The Bylesby company disallows the claim constantly made by the Union company that its transformer station at Lewis street and the "the lines" that connect it with the Page avenue station, at which the water power is received, should be included in the valuation of the property. The Bylesby report says the item is $940,556 and its exclusion is responsible for the Bylesby report that the railroads should pay $40,153 less a year to the Union than the Union company proposes in its Public Service Commission petition that the Railways shall pay.

General Manager Perkins takes exception also to the report's allowance of 8 per cent as a fair return on power furnished the Railways, which the Bylesby report declines that the last ruling of the Public Service Commission established partially to determine the justice of that petition.

Acquitted on Robbery Charge.

Harry Lether, 3706 Page avenue, was acquitted of a charge of first degree robbery today by a jury in Circuit Judge Taylor's court. Raymond H. McAtee, druggist, at 3342 Franklin avenue, who on the witness stand identified Lether as having robbed him of $60 May 5 last, admitted under cross-examination that he had failed to positively identify the defendant as the man who had broken into his police headquarters. Lether said that he and his wife were visiting a friend on Pine street at the time of the robbery.

An automobile tour of the residence, northwest industrial and business sections of the city will follow. The party is scheduled to arrive at the Missouri Automobile Association at 10:30, and begin the reception of St. Louis manufacturers who may desire to know the needs of each of the countries in a business way.

A luncheon will be given in the Missouri Athletic Association at 12:30, at which the following of the visitors will speak: Florimond Hanke, chairman of the Belgian delegation; W. Waddington of the French delegation; Baile John King of the English delegation and Ferdinand Quaranta, chairman of the Italian delegation. The afternoon will be spent in a tour of industries.

A dinner to which 200 invitations have been issued will be held at the St. Louis Club in the evening. The visiting speakers will be Eugene Schneider, chairman of the French delegation; Sir Arthur Shirley Benn, chairman of the British delegation; Giorgio Mylius, representing Italy, and Edward A. Filene of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The party will depart for Kansas City at 11 p.m.

"WORLD IN FOOL'S PARADISE"

Warburg Says Disease of Fictitious Wealth Must Be Cured.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The world lives in a fool's paradise based upon fictitious wealth, rash promises and mad illusions, declared Paul M.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By applying your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant, and you appear years younger.—ADV.

Warburg, formerly Vice Governor of the Federal Reserve Board, in a statement issued on his return from Europe last night. He has traveled Europe the last three months studying the financial situation abroad.

"The disease is world wide," he said. "It is spread too far to enable us to deal with it as a whole. We may agree on the principles on which it must be fought, but each country will have to be treated in accordance with its own particular conditions. The first step however, is to prick the bubbles of false promises and to begin by clearing the world balance sheet of fictitious assets as far and as fast as we can."

"Europe needs our products and requires them largely on credit," he added, "and it is our moral duty to furnish these goods."

JURY FINDS MRS. SKAGGS NOT GUILTY OF DELIBERATE MURDER
Mrs. Kate Skaggs, 20 years old, who killed her three children with an ax, April 19, 1918, in her home at 812 North Eleventh street, was committed to the city sanitarium yesterday afternoon by Circuit Judge Garesche after a jury had found her guilty of deliberate murder.

Altenists testified that the triple killing took place while Mrs. Skaggs was suffering from acute insanity.

The jury was out 10 minutes. The children were Leo, 5 years old; Anna, May, 3, and Dora, 9 months old; shortly after he had registered for the draft.

Franz Paulerberg, 32 years old, sought by the War Department charged with evading the draft, was arrested by detectives who lured him to the telephone at his rooming house, 916 Allen avenue, yesterday afternoon.

A music program has been arranged for "Polish night" at the St. Louis Exposition of Industrial Arts and Crafts, in the old Southern Hotel building, beginning Nov. 11.

Jean Berecowski, dramatic tenor, who is a soldier at Jefferson Barracks, will appear. He was formerly a Polish opera singer. Miss Antoinette Moczydowski, a foster-sister of Sergeant Michael Ellis, St. Louis' greatest war hero, is another soloist on the program. Polish folk songs and dances in which girls from the Polish colony will participate, will be featured.

Polish hymns will be sung by the St. Casimir choir. Addresses will be delivered by Stanislaus Chlorkowski, Frank B. Grodski and Julian Groszewski. A Polish military banner will be presented to the Missouri State Historical Society by Sergeant Ellis, and a sketch of Polish history in dramatic form will be given by the Gray Samaritans.

Polish Program Eliminated.

The Belgian program, scheduled for last night, is to be eliminated, much to the regret of the committee in charge of the auditorium features, owing to the fact that Henry L. Bullen, director of the Typographic Library and Museum at Jersey City, N. J., who was billed to begin a 45-minute address at 8 o'clock, did not appear until 8:40 and then delivered an address which was not concluded until after 10 o'clock.

The Belgians had arranged an entertainment program which was to be introduced at 8:45. The audience was about evenly divided between printers and their friends who had come to hear Bullen, and persons from the Belgian colony. The Belgians listened attentively to Bullen and were patient and good natured, but as 10 o'clock approached the children in costume behind the curtain waiting to present tableaux became restless.

Interruption Vexes Speaker.

Bullen, who had the interruption, remarked about the Belgian section of the audience. He said that he had traveled 1,000 miles to deliver his address and was going to see it through. He referred to those who had become restless as rowdies.

Dr. Alexander N. de Menil, who, with the Belgian Consul, Marc Seguin, was booked for an address as guest of honor of the Belgians, when Bullen finally had concluded, announced that "Belgian night" would be abandoned. The Belgians had been abandoned by the Belgians. The audience was then dismissed. Bullen's address was on "The Relation of Graphic Art to Civilization."

Dance Series to Begin Tonight.

Tomorrow will be "International Trade Conference day." Representatives from Great Britain, France, Belgium and Italy who attended the International Trade Conference last month at Atlantic City, are expected to visit the exposition in the forenoon. Tomorrow afternoon the Wednesday Club will have charge of the auditorium program.

The first of a series of dances for members of the Community Service League will be held at the exposition tonight.

SEVERAL WOMEN HOAXED BY STORY OF TALKING MACHINE

Stranger Calls and Sends Them to Express Office to Get Instrument Won by Husband.

Several complaints have been made by women who said that a man had called at their homes and told them their husbands had won a talking machine. He told them they could obtain the instrument by going to an express office at Eighth and Market streets and paying in $2.95 express charges.

Mr. Fred Legree, 2221 Rutgers street, said that when she went to the express office a clerk there informed her that several other women had called on a similar errand and that perhaps a practical joker was at work, as there was no such parcel as the one called for. Mrs. Legree hurried home, believing that the man had hoaxed her with the intention of ransacking her home in her absence, but she found everything intact.

Mrs. Alice Mulvihill, 2811 Hickory street, had a similar experience yesterday.

ARCH AND PLACARDS OF WAR REMOVED AT UNION STATION

Reminders Being Done Away With —Information Bureaus for Soldiers to Remain.

A triumphal arch erected last March in Union Station Midway in honor of men returning from the war was removed yesterday along with other reminders of the war, including all signs and information placards for former service men.

The arch was erected at a cost of

TWO YEARS NEEDED TO WIDEN FIVE STREETS

Projects Initiated by Board of Public Service Have Total Estimated Cost of $4,200,000.

At least two years' time will be required for the legal steps involved in five street-widening projects which were initiated by the Board of Public Service yesterday, and which have a total estimated cost of $4,200,000.

The city will have to pay a part of the cost, and Street Director Talbert, in speaking of the problem of raising this money, said it would not be needed for two years, and that by that time he hoped, as Mayor Kiel sometimes says, that "God will take care of us."

The five widening projects, for which the board authorized Talbert to draft ordinances, with the estimated cost of each are:

Olive street from Twelfth street to Channing avenue by cutting off 40 feet on the south side and making a 100-foot thoroughfare, $2,000,000.

Gravols avenue between Calhoun street and Grand avenue, from 60 to 100 feet; also establishment of 100-feet building line on Twelfth street, between Park and Calhoun street, $1,200,000.

Natural Bridge avenue and Palm street and establishment of a connection with North Twelfth street, $750,000.

Vandeveuter avenue, between Washington avenue and Market street from 60 to 100 feet, $210,000.

Vandeveuter avenue, between Chouteau avenue and Tower Grove viaduct from 60 to 100 feet, $45,000.

The Olive street widening will require partial demolition of the new five-story building of the Southern Railway Supply Co. at Seventeenth street. Engineer Christopher of the City Plan Commission said to the board that the company was informed, when it planned this building, that the city contemplated widening the street, but that it went ahead with construction anyway.

The Gravols avenue and Natural Bridge avenue widenings are part of the plan for the extension of Twelfth street as a through traffic artery.

After the ordinances are drafted, they will have to be submitted to the Board of Aldermen, and pass through the usual course of hearings. After the ordinances are passed and signed, commissions will have to be named to assess benefits and damages. This is slow work, and is not expected to end in less than two years from the present time.

ZIMMERMANN EVADES ISSUES AT GERMAN INQUIRY INTO WAR

Holweg Comes to His Assistance and Both Declare They Opposed Belgian Deportations.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Nov. 5.—The sitting yesterday of the subcommittee of the assembly which is investigating the question of responsibility for the war was notable for the evasive answers of Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, former Secretary for Foreign Affairs, concerning Germany's treatment of Belgians, and Von Bethmann-Hollweg, former Imperial Chancellor, to come to the assistance of Zimmermann and answer for him. Both Zimmermann and Von Bethmann-Hollweg protested that they had made efforts against the all-powerful military party in the matter of deportation of Belgians.

Germany's peace offer again was brought up. Von Bethmann-Hollweg reiterated that he freely and sincerely peace with James W. Gerard, the American Ambassador. After the torpedoing, in March, 1916, of the English Channel steamer Sussex, and when Ambassador Gerard was preparing to return home, Von Bethmann-Hollweg said he spoke to the Ambassador, saying:

"Now President Wilson has a free path. Urge him to act. We have done our utmost."

To this Von Bethmann-Hollweg added:

"What could have been a stronger appeal for peace?"

Edward David, Minister of the Interior, embarrassed Von Bethmann-Hollweg and Zimmermann by demanding to know whether it would not have made the United States almost an ally had Germany accepted President Wilson's peace proposal. To this Von Bethmann-Hollweg replied that the German people were too embittered to consider accepting President Wilson's offer.

DOGGETHER WINS FIFTH BRIDE

70-Year Old Negress Will Wear "Doggone Fine Troussseau."

When Mrs. M. Hill, 70 years old, of St. Charles, steps up to the altar of the New Hope Colored Baptist Church in St. Charles tomorrow to become the fifth bride of Bill Bruce, her doggoine and she will wear a $15 gown paid for much dogs. That was the amount received by Bruce for the dogs he captured last week and he devoted all of it to the purchase of a "doggone fine troussseau" for his bride. Bruce is 74 years old.

Mayer Rings and members of the City Council have been invited to attend the wedding. City employees have donated an opossum and sweet potatoes for the wedding breakfast.

Concession to Bolivia Denied.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 5.—Cate-rical denial of a proposal from Washington that Chile had ceded Bolivia a strip of land north of Arica which would give Bolivia an outlet to the sea was made by the Chilean Government today. It was said such rumors were of frequent occurrence.

EVERYONE SHOULD DRINK HOT WATER IN THE MORNING

Wash away all stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel cleap inside; to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before bed each night, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify, and freshen the entire alimentary tract before eating more food.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.—ADV.

KEEP YOUR INNER ORGANS

Cleanse and by so doing you will all the time be in better health.

Nature has provided a great piece of machinery, but all machines must be cleaned and oiled to keep them in perfect working order. Try Dr. Burkhardt's Vegetable Compound, 25c, at all drugstores. It is a great tonic and nutritive.

It contains 20 different vegetables.

It is mine that is everlasting rich in the fundamental elements of health building.—ADV.

Home-Made Lotion for Wrinkled, Flabby Skin

To remove wrinkles and age lines, or to delay their formation, a simple lotion made by dissolving one ounce of pure powdered saponin in a half pint of witch hazel will be found wonderfully effective. Take a cloth to cleanse and tone the relaxed skin, making it firm and smooth. The ingredients, of course, can be had at any drug store or in toilet sections of department stores.

Bath the skin with this harmless lotion daily, for awhile and every time you wash, including the deepest crevices and furrows. Even the first application gives a remarkable result. It is better for reducing double chin and sagging cheek muscles, as well as wrinkles around the eyes. The lotion itself remains on the face, so your friends will not guess its reason for your rejuvenated appearance.—ADV.

Mayor Re-elected Over Schmitz and Brady Leads Flickert for Dis-

By the Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—James Rolph Jr. was re-elected Mayor yesterday, defeating Eugene Schmitz, a former Mayor, by approximately 20,000 plurality, according to figures compiled early today from one-half of the vote of the city. Complete returns from 294 precincts out of 596 in the city gave Rolph 26,410 and Schmitz 14,407.

In the contest for District Attorney, Matthew Brady, Police Judge, was leading Charles M. Flickert, including 519 votes.

The campaign for the District Attorneyship was given unusual prominence because of the fact that Flickert led the prosecution of Mooney and others charged with murder in connection with the Preparedness day bomb explosions in 1916.

All contests ran on nonpartisan tickets, there being no party designations.

said the boy had suffered a fractured skull and thigh. His condition was considered critical yesterday.
Leaven was arrested.

John Meier, 33, a butcher, 1806

MOORE WINS IN PHILADELPHIA

Congressman Elected Mayor by 183,516 Plurality.

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of the third Pennsylvania district, who was elected Mayor of Philadelphia yesterday, was congratulated today for receiving one of the largest Republican pluralities ever given a Mayor of this city. Coming out of a bitter primary fight in which he won by only 1313 votes in a total of 369,000 ballots cast, Mr. Moore carried the city, according to the semi-official official count, by 183,516 over Harry
L. Weisert, his Democratic opponent.
The Republicans also elected all their candidates for county offices, and all their congressional candidates.

Under the new city charter law passed by the last Legislature, Philadelphia, beginning with the new year, will have a councilmanic body of 21 members, who will receive a yearly salary of $5,000 each, in place of the two chamber councils with a total of 145 unpaid members.

Safe Fat Reduction

Reduction, reduction, reduction is the slogan of safe fat reduction. Get thin, be slim is the desire of fashion and society. And the moment writing their hands in mortification and helplessness, revolting at existing drugs, afraid of violent exercises, dreading the outcome and unwilling to believe still they can't believe it that they may safely reduce even three or four pounds a week without one chance in their mode of life, yet harmlessly, secretly, with a minimum of pain, better health and happiness than they have ever known. And now comes Marmola Prescription Tablets from the same famously harmless formularies as the Marmola Prescription. THREE INDICTED FOR SHOOTING POLICE CHIEF Malicious Assault to Kill and First Degree Robbery Charged to Men Who Robbed Store.

Indictments charging malicious assault to kill and first degree robbery were voted by the Grand Jury yesterday against Elmer and Clarence Pustmueller, brothers of 3145 Bell avenue, and Benjamin Funke of 3622 North Eleventh Street, charged with having shot Chief Police Martin O'Brien at 4:30 A.M. when he attempted to capture them after a clerk in H. H. Gerhardt's jewelry store, 3224 Olive street, had been robbed.

The maximum penalty for each offense named in the indictment is life imprisonment.

The Pustmuellers and Funke, all known to the police, were arrested about two hours after the shooting of Chief O'Brien when they were captured in their Pustmueller home. At St. John's Hospital the Chief identified Clarence Pustmueller as the man who shot him had followed two of the fleeing robbers into an alley between Olive and Pine streets and near Compton avenue.

The pursued men ran into a yard and one of them, firing over a gate, shot the Chief in the left hand and the neck, the same bullet making both wounds. It was at first thought the Chief was seriously injured, but at the hospital it was found the bullet which struck him had emerged near the point of entrance.

The Pustmuellers and Funke were identified by several persons as the men who ran from the jewelry store after the robbery. No weapons were found in the Pustmueller home, but three discarded suits of wet clothing were there. The police regarded this as evidence that the men changed their clothing after arriving at the house. It was raining when the Chief was shot.

OLDEST REPUBLIC IN WORLD HAS NO POLITICS OR STRIKES

Two Americans Arrive in New York From Andorra. Given Its Freedom by Charlemagne.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Direct from a paradise—where, since the year 841, there has been no politics, strikes, profiteering, drunkenness or disease—and but one violent death—came two men to New York yesterday. They journeyed from Andorra, the "oldest and smallest republic in the world." The steamship Catalina, from Barcelona, Spain, brought them.

It costs Andorra $400 a year to maintain its independence and peace from outside interference, they said. This money is paid in tribute equally divided between France and Spain, its neighbors. Charlemagne gave the territory its freedom, and it has been maintained uninterrupted to date.

Fish Warren and Joseph Alemany, trustees of the single tax colony of St. Jordi, were the two arrivals from Andorra. They are on their way to Fairhope, Ala., near Mobile, to attend the celebration of its twenty-fifth anniversary as the oldest and largest single tax community in the world.

Andorra, they said, pays its President $16 a year and its 24 members of the Parliament $5 each. The country is 175 square miles in extent. Its population is 6000.

"There is no internal strife in Andorra," Warren declared, "because the people know each other so well that irresponsible persons can never hope to feel any part of them any part of the time and ever hold office. There are no newspapers. A large percentage of the people are illiterate, but intelligent."

Warren and Alemany will go first to Harvard, Mass., where the former founded a single tax colony.

CHICAGO TO PROVIDE FOR PLANES

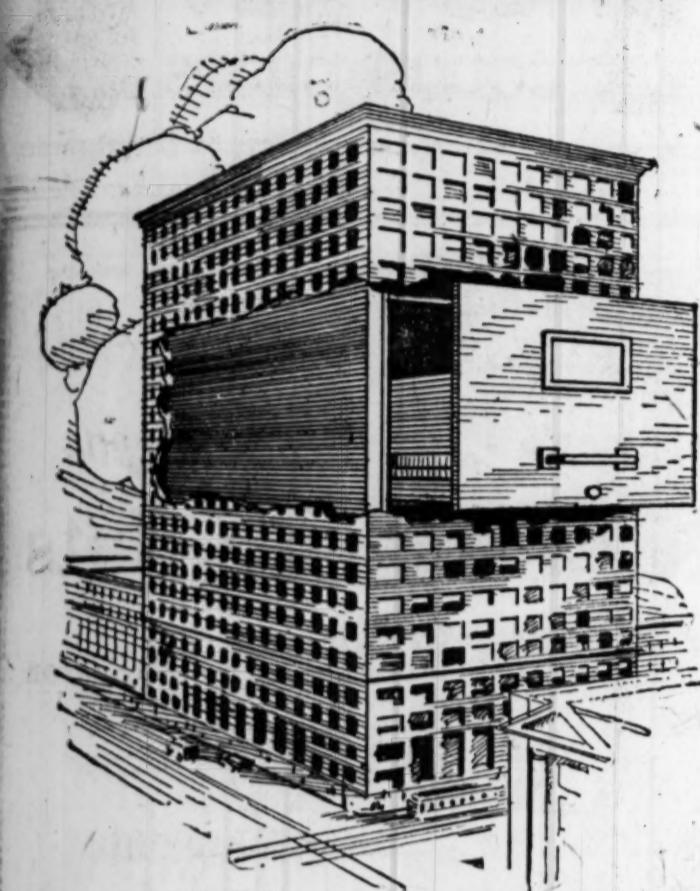

Business Men Plan Construction of Six Landing Fields. By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—At a conference between postal authorities, city park commissioners and Chicago Association of Commerce members, to discuss the enlargement of aerial facilities in Chicago, it was announced that the Association of Commerce was planning the construction of one landing field not more than a mile from the heart of the city, and five other fields around the city for the use of commercial airplanes.

Among the commercial firms expected to take advantage of the proposed facilities for aerial navigation, it was said, was the International Railways Express Co., which has ordered five or six Martin type planes. These planes are to be used principally for the conveyance of valuable papers, large amounts of money and jewelry, and each will be equipped with a strong box in which the valuables will be carried. Other firms, it was announced are expected to enter the field as pioneers in commercial air service.

BIG JAPANESE NAVAL PROGRAM

By the Associated Press. HONOLULU, Nov. 5.—An eight-year naval program, costing $354,000,000, has been decided upon by the Japanese Government. It was announced in a cable message to the Shimpo, a Japanese daily newspaper. The program includes the construction of four 40,000-ton battleships of the Nagato class, four battle cruisers, 20 light cruisers, 80 destroyers, 70 submarines and 30 other craft.

Greek King Thanks Red Cross

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—King Alexander expressed his thanks for the aid given Greece by the American Red Cross in a message received by local Red Cross officials.

ST. LOUIS REPUBLICANS MAY AID DWIGHT DAVIS FOR U. S. SENATOR

Mayor Says He "Did Not Discourage Davis" in Discussion of Candidacy This Morning.

After Lieutenant-Colonel Dwight F. Davis had called on the city hall to "pay his respects" to Mayor Kiel today, the Mayor told a Post-Dispatch reporter he believed the St. Louis Republican organization would support Davis if he should seek election as United States Senator. The Mayor said the possibility of Davis' candidacy was discussed between them and he "did not discourage Davis."

After the visit John Schmoll, chairman of the Republican City Committee, said he had no doubt Davis would make a good candidate for Senator.

City Collector Koelin said he had agreed to the formation of a business men's committee to further Davis' candidacy. This, he said, was proposed by A. L. Shapleigh, Benjamin Gratz and other business men.

POET LECTURING AT CONVENTS

Mrs. Aileen Kilmer Discusses American Women Poets and Writings.

Mrs. Aileen Kilmer, widow of Joyce Kilmer, American poet, killed in action in France, and herself a poet, is giving a series of lectures at Catholic convents in St. Louis this week.

She spoke this afternoon at Maryville convent, will appear tomorrow at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, and at St. Joseph's Academy tomorrow afternoon. Monday night she spoke at the Academy of the Visitation, and yesterday afternoon Lorretta College at Webster Groves gave an informal reception in her honor. Mrs. Kilmer talked of American women poets and their writings. At the close of the lecture she read several of her own poems.

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and druggists claim that the great epidemic of influenza has conclusively demonstrated that the quickest relief for a cold and the best preventive of influenza and pneumonia is to keep the liver active so that the digestive organs may be in perfect condition. For this purpose Calotabs, the new nauseless calomel tablets that are free from the sickening and weakening effects, is the most thorough and dependable, as well as the most agreeable laxative.

Calotabs have the special advantage of not making the patient sick and weak, as they do not upset the digestion and appetite. One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure, or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast.

For your protection Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price 25c. Sold by all druggists and your money back if you are not delighted with them.—ADV.

MILLIONS Suffer from Acid-Stomach

Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their trouble comes from the acid in the stomach. Here is the reason: poor diet means poor assimilation, the different parts of the body not getting the proper share of the available food. The blood is impoverished—becomes watery and sluggish—and there are many kinds of suffering from such conditions. Inflammation, rheumatism, lameness, and general weakness, toothaches, and enlarged headaches, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression, and even serious diseases such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, chronic rheumatism, etc. These are all diseases that can often be traced directly to acid-stomach trouble. Acid-stomach causes all sorts of symptoms of acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repeating that never seems to pass through the system, a heavy, heavy stomach. EATONIC, the wonderful medicine for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach miseries. This medicine may seem expensive, but anything could bring such speedy relief as will make them forget its price. Make a few tablets and add a little water or juice—no blues or melancholy—so well and strong. Get back your physical and mental punch; your health and strength will be restored. You can get rid of as long as you have acid-stomach. The doctor says, "If you eat them like a bit of candy, your druggist has got to give you a refund." Take EATONIC, and if you eat them like a bit of candy, your druggist has got to give you a refund. If you are not satisfied he will refund your money.

7 ILLINOIS OPERATORS MAKE OFFER TO MINERS

Union Secretary Says Employers Have Promised to Grant All Demands of Men.

Seven coal operators who have small mines in the vicinity of Belleville have offered to grant all the miners' demands and sign up at the new scale immediately. James Mason, secretary of the Belleville sub-district of the United Mine Workers, said today: Thus the first reported "break" in the St. Clair County strike situation was in the ranks of the operators instead of the miners. Union leaders were jubilant over the situation.

Mason said it was probable that the advances would be rejected and that the miners probably will not sign up with any operators until all of them grant the demands. The seven operators offered to employ a total of 210 miners.

The demands which these owners are willing to grant consist of a 60 per cent increase in wages, a six-hour work day and a five-day week. The shortening of the time, the miners have repeatedly asserted, is not simply to give the miners shorter working time, but to force the operators to distribute the work over the year more evenly, instead of running full time in winter, and very little in summer.

85 Mines Still Closed.

The seven operators are among those who do not ship coal, but who sell directly from the mines to the consumers in their communities. However, the mines are unionized, and the owners have been represented by the operators' organization.

Outside of this development, the situation remains virtually unchanged, with 85 mines in St. Clair and Madison Counties still closed and 14,200 miners out and reiterating their determination to stay out until their national officers order them back to work.

As was told exclusively in late editions of yesterday's Post-Dispatch, the miners made their first systematic preparation toward providing support for themselves and their families during the strike when the managers of more than 100 co-operative stores throughout Illinois arranged to extend their credit to the limit of the stock held in the stores by the miners' locals.

Strikers Will Get Supplies.
At a meeting held in East St. Louis Monday, the managers of the stores, which are operated by the Central States Co-operative Wholesale Society, amended the by-laws to enable them to extend such credit. J. H. Atkinson, field agent, said that if that credit is exhausted measures probably will be taken to extend it further. The stock in the society is held by the members of trades unions, and, as a rule, sales are made only to their members, and for cash.

Another amendment to the by-laws provided that in case another local is forced to stop work because of the strike, even if the locals hold no stock in the society, goods will be sold to them at cost price.

Mason said today that various operators had appealed to the union headquarters for men to do timbering and repair work in the mines. Their requests were refused, he said. No men will be permitted to enter the mines except in case of serious emergency, although pumpmen, engineers, firemen and mule feeders are permitted to remain on duty to protect property.

Calotabs have the special advantage of not making the patient sick and weak, as they do not upset the digestion and appetite. One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure, or work. Millions of people suffer year after year from ailments affecting practically every part of the body, never dreaming that their trouble comes from the acid in the stomach.

Here is the reason: poor diet means poor assimilation, the different parts of the body not getting the proper share of the available food.

The blood is impoverished—becomes watery and sluggish—and there are many kinds of suffering from such conditions.

Inflammation, rheumatism, lameness, and enlarged headaches, insomnia, nervousness, mental depression, and even serious diseases such as catarrh and cancer of the stomach, intestinal ulcers, chronic rheumatism, etc.

These are all diseases that can often be traced directly to acid-stomach trouble.

Acid-stomach—indigestion, heartburn, belching, food repeating that never seems to pass through the system, a heavy, heavy stomach.

EATONIC, the wonderful medicine for acid-stomach, is guaranteed to bring quick relief from these stomach miseries.

This medicine may seem expensive, but anything could bring such speedy relief as will make them forget its price.

Make a few tablets and add a little water or juice—no blues or melancholy—so well and strong. Get back your physical and mental punch; your health and strength will be restored. You can get rid of as long as you have acid-stomach.

The doctor says, "If you eat them like a bit of candy, your druggist has got to give you a refund."

If you are not satisfied he will refund your money.

What Nuxated Iron Is Made From

Sworn Statement of Composition of Its Formula
It increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances.

The Board of Directors have authorized the broadest publication of the sworn statement of the composition of Nuxated Iron, one of the most widely used tonic, strength and blood builders in the world, so that the public may examine it for themselves and judge as to its merits.

Seven coal operators who have small mines in the vicinity of Belleville have offered to grant all the miners' demands and sign up at the new scale immediately. James Mason, secretary of the Belleville sub-district of the United Mine Workers, said today: Thus the first reported "break" in the St. Clair County strike situation was in the ranks of the operators instead of the miners. Union leaders were jubilant over the situation.

Mason said it was probable that the advances would be rejected and that the miners probably will not sign up with any operators until all of them grant the demands. The seven operators offered to employ a total of 210 miners.

The demands which these owners are willing to grant consist of a 60 per cent increase in wages, a six-hour work day and a five-day week.

The shortening of the time, the miners have repeatedly asserted, is not simply to give the miners shorter working time, but to force the operators to distribute the work over the year more evenly, instead of running full time in winter, and very little in summer.

85 Mines Still Closed.

The seven operators are among those who do not ship coal, but who sell directly from the mines to the consumers in their communities.

However, the mines are unionized, and the owners have been represented by the operators' organization.

Outside of this development, the situation remains virtually unchanged, with 85 mines in St. Clair and Madison Counties still closed and 14,200 miners out and reiterating their determination to stay out until their national officers order them back to work.

As was told exclusively in late editions of yesterday's Post-Dispatch, the miners made their first systematic preparation toward providing support for themselves and their families during the strike when the managers of more than 100 co-operative stores throughout Illinois arranged to extend their credit to the limit of the stock held in the stores by the miners' locals.

Strikers Will Get Supplies.
At a meeting held in East St. Louis Monday, the managers of the stores, which are operated by the Central States Co-operative Wholesale Society, amended the by-laws to enable them to extend such credit.

J. H. Atkinson, field agent, said that if that credit is exhausted measures probably will be taken to extend it further. The stock in the society is held by the members of trades unions, and, as a rule, sales are made only to their members, and for cash.

Another amendment to the by-laws provided that in case another local is forced to stop work because of the strike, even if the locals hold no stock in the society, goods will be sold to them at cost price.

Mason said today that various operators had appealed to the union headquarters for men to do timbering and repair work in the mines. Their requests were refused, he said. No men will be permitted to enter the mines except in case of serious emergency, although pumpmen, engineers, firemen and mule feeders are permitted to remain on duty to protect property.

Calotabs have the special advantage of not making the patient sick and weak, as they do not upset the digestion and appetite. One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure, or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast.

For your protection Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price 25c. Sold by all druggists and your money back if you are not delighted with them.—ADV.

BALL TONIGHT FOR MISS ELIZABETH SMITH

Parents Have Invited 400 Guests to Affair at the Country Club.

ST. LOUIS society will be well represented this evening at the ball which Miss Elizabeth Smith will give at the St. Louis Country Club, at which their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Platt Smith will be formally presented. Autumn leaves, bitter-sweet and chrysanthemums will be used to decorate the club.

About 400 guests have been invited. Mrs. J. D. Perry Francis will receive with Dr. and Mrs. and Miss Smith.

Miss Smith is one of the most attractive of the year's debutantes and made her first appearance at the Veiled Prophet ball, where she was one of the six special maids of honor. She was educated at Sacred Heart Convent in St. Louis and later attended Eden Hall, the Sacred Heart Convent at Torredale, Penn., from which she was graduated.

Her gown this evening will be of white satin, made on plain lines with a belt train faced with flame-colored satin. She will carry American beauties.

Miss Caroline Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Tyler, will entertain several of the debutantes at dinner earlier in the evening.

and Miss Jessie Brown as bridesmaid. Hugh Clancy Jamison will serve as best man and Arthur C. Brown as groomsman.

Mr. Jamison and his bride will spend their honeymoon in the South and will reside in Poynter.

The bridegroom's father and the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Alexander of Tampa, Fla., will be present at the wedding.

Our constant vigil for what is new enables us to present an array of Christmas gifts to meet every requirement of gold or silver, platinum or gems. Heffern-Neuboff, Jewelers. Eight-O-Nine Locust.—Adv.

Mrs. George Gannett of 5450 Delmar boulevard will entertain tomorrow afternoon with a bridge party in honor of Miss Mary A. Davis, whose marriage to Mrs. Gannett's cousin, Bernard Willis, will take place Nov. 22. The house will be decorated in pink and yellow chrysanthemums and tables will be arranged for 40 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Van Riper of 507 Clark avenue, will entertain at dinner Saturday night in honor of Miss Carter Millikan, one of the winter debutantes.

Miss Frances Ewens, daughter of Mrs. John Ewens of the Chesterfield Apartments, will give a luncheon for debutantes next Monday.

Past presidents of the club will act as hostesses at Wednesday Club day tomorrow at the exposition of arts and crafts. The women will be led by Mrs. Harvey G. Mudd and Mrs. Clay A. Jordan.

The Wednesday Club yesterday announced that the regular meeting of its civic section, scheduled for tomorrow at the club auditorium, had been transferred and will be held at 3 o'clock in the arts and crafts exposition auditorium. Mrs. A. E. McCandless will be section leader, and Commander E. A. Brooks, U. S. N., will be the speaker.

The bride will be attended by Miss Marion C. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clarkson Brown of 6 Algonquin Lane, St. Frances Buffet as maid of honor

A euchre and lotto party will be given by the Married Women's Society of St. Barbara's church, Hampton and Minerva avenues this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The first monthly meeting of the Webster Groves League of Women Voters will be held in the High School auditorium, Friday at 3 o'clock.

G. Wade Burton entertained about 50 of his friends on last Thursday evening, Oct. 30, with a Halloween party, at his country home just west of Clayton. The feature of the evening was a hay ride.

Mrs. Greenfield Sluder of 4935 Maryland avenue was a hostess at a luncheon yesterday for eight debutantes. Miss Elizabeth Smith was guest of honor and the other guests were Misses Elizabeth Kennard, Anne Bloch, Elizabeth Benoit, Frances Garrison, C. Lee Milliken, Ruth Lionberger and Dorothy Pilot.

The engagement of Miss Batrice Krey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrik Krey, of 3428 Russell avenue to Jack Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stephens of 1908 Park avenue, was announced yesterday afternoon at a party given by Miss Krey. The house was decorated in chrysanthemums and 12 tables were arranged for bridge. Miss Krey is a graduate of Loretto Academy. The wedding date has not been set.

Mrs. A. A. Wallace of 3 University lane will entertain next Monday with a luncheon to 40 debutantes at the Boy's Club in honor of her granddaughter, Miss Jane Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Goddard of Wydown boulevard and West road, St. Louis County.

LABORITES RUN SECOND

TO G. O. P. IN ST. CLAIR

DECEMBER CORN IS UP
4 CENTS IN LATE TRADE

Sweep Belleville by Heavy Majorities and Are Beaten in County Only by Farmer Vote.

Appearing yesterday on the ballot there for the first time, the newly formed Labor Party in St. Clair County would have carried the county if independent return tally indicated, but for the farmers' vote. As it was, the Labor candidates for seats in the constitutional convention ran second to the Republicans, the Democrats coming in third.

Leaders of the two old parties are startled at this sudden and unexpected strength of the Laborites. Without much organization, little money and comparatively no publicity, the Labor candidates swept Belleville, the traditional Republican stronghold, a vote of two to one over the Republicans, and four to one over the Democrats.

The party was organized in the county about two months ago by labor-union leaders, as a branch of the Illinois Labor Party, which was started in Chicago more than a year ago. A County Central Committee and some city committees were formed, but the leaders of the old parties gave it little consideration. It appeared today that labor union members had supported the Labor candidates solidly.

Returns from 42 out of 62 precincts today on the candidates for the convention were: William Trautmann (Rep.), 1941; Herbert Lill (Rep.), 1799; William T. Christopher (Lab.), 1878; C. W. Sebastian (Lab.), 1562; W. M. Vandeventer (Dem.), 1255; Charles Karch (Dem.), 990; W. R. Haefner (Soc.), 219, and R. Woodward (Soc.), 201.

It appeared that Belleville Socialists, who have voted that ticket in city elections and supported Repub-

Will the Influenza Return?

Public Health Authorities Predict its Recurrence.

Guard Against it by Building Up the Blood.

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich Red Blood and Increases Strength

Surgeon-General Blue of the United States Public Health Service, in recent statement from Washington, was quoted as publicizing the much-dreaded influenza epidemic will probably return this Fall and Winter. All medical authorities agree that the weak, bloodless, run-down individual is more likely to contract this (as well as any other infectious disease) than the strong, robust, red-blooded man or woman. In view of these facts, it is wise to use every effort to build up the blood and thus increase the body's resistance to the invasion of the germs of disease. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is an absolutely dependable red-blooded builder in all conditions of lowered vitality not due to serious disease of the vital organs. It improves the appetite, imparts color to the cheeks and creates new hope and ambition in those who have become pale, weak and listless. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets for a week.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets is ever troubled with a dark brown taste; a bad breath, a chill, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimpy face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c.

Says Pile Remedy Worth $100.00 a Box

"I have had nothing piles ever since my earliest recollection, I am 63 years old and have suffered terribly. I have tried many remedies, but none have been of any use for about 8 weeks ago I saw your ad for Peterson's Ointment. The first application was a success, and I have had no trouble since. I have only used one box since, and I am now well again. My gratitude is boundless, thanks, and I hope everyone that has this trouble see this and buy Peterson's Ointment. I paid over a hundred dollars for a box, a trial sample cost me $1.00."

—John G. Jones, Columbus, Ohio.

Peterson's Ointment for piles, ectemna, fistulae, hemorrhoids, etc., is sold at all druggists. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N.Y.

Judge A. D. Mader and Wm. Wilson Drugg Co. will supply you.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then destroy it entirely. To do this, just get out four ounces of plain, common soap from your drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find this method so dignified, the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.—ADV.

BETHMANN-HOLLWEG SEES NO LASTING PEACE

Medical Authorities in the World Explain Their Maneuvers During War.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, Tuesday, Nov. 4.—Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the former German Chancellor, stated in the course of his testimony today before the Subcommittee of the National Assembly investigating war responsibility that he did not believe during the war, and does not now believe in a lasting peace. Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg said that the peace terms, suggested by Germany Dec. 12, 1916, were a compromise between the views of the military and political authorities.

"As regards our strategic demands (regarding Belgium and the eastern frontier) I did not believe that a comparatively long period of peace would be granted us," he said. "I am still today unable to believe in a lasting peace particularly after we have been submitted to the state of mind, in which the Entente found what it calls a real peace."

Minister Sinzheimer asked why the Belgian question was not placed at the head of the German demand.

"Easy to Say It Was Wrong."

Bethmann-Hollweg replied: "It is very easy to say after the event that everything was wrong. We were then confronted with the complete note from the Entente Government regarding peace terms, which was one of complete rejection and demanded the disarmament and destruction of the German army. Were we to say: 'We will be satisfied. We will give back Belgium and pay indemnities into the bargain?'

Bethmann-Hollweg said that he had given Ambassador Gerard no information for President Wilson about Germany's desire in the East, since Belgium was the subject chiefly in the mind of the President at that time. He had assured Ambassador Gerard that Belgium would be treated fairly, although it had always been a background for attacks upon Germany.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg paid Ambassador Gerard a left-handed compliment when he got the news that Mr. Gerard was not well informed in September, 1916, but that he got information in America and was informed when he returned to Germany in December of that year. Herr von Bethmann-Hollweg said, however, that he was certain that Ambassador Gerard would be treated fairly, although it had always been a background for attacks upon Germany.

As a red blood purifier, Plough's Prescription C-2223 has been used for years and years with great success in the treatment of those conditions of the skin due to an impure state of the blood. This concentrated liquid treatment contains certain medicinal ingredients well known to the medical profession, which eliminate the poisons causing the trouble, purify the blood and make the skin clear and healthy.

JUDGE FINES JUROR $10 FOR TALKING ABOUT DAMAGE CASE

Assessment Later Is Remitted and Contractor Is Dismissed From Further Jury Service.

Former Chancellor and Zimmermann Explain Their Maneuvers During War.

Henry W. Dudek, 6440 West Park avenue, a contractor, was fined $10, which was later remitted, by Judge Falkenhainer this morning, because he told a friend about a case on which he was serving as a juror. He was dismissed from further jury service.

It was claimed by the defense in the trial of Miss Elizabeth Cardwell, 4999 Forest Avenue, against the St. Louis Paper Co. and Tube Co., in which Miss Cardwell was awarded $3000 damages yesterday for injuries, that Dudek told a friend on a street car Monday that he intended to see that the girl would get all that was possible." Both he and the friend denied that any such statement had been made. They admitted that the case had been discussed.

McADOO Buys Texas Oil Lease.

By the Associated Press.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 5.—William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, dipped into oil yesterday when he bought a thirty-acre lease near Wichita Falls, paying $1000 an acre. "I am willing to take a chance," was his only comment.

If You Suffer the Torments of Burning Itching Skin Diseases

It's Possible You Can Secure Permanent Relief by the Use of This Prescription Treatment

When your skin itches, you just must scratch and rub, until you well know that the irritation caused will itch all the more and burn like coals of fire. In addition to the suffering and torture, the glands of the inflamed skin will throw off a watery pus that makes the trouble all the more unbearable.

Mussey and greater external applications may stop the itching for a while, but as this diseased condition of the skin is usually caused by an impure state of your blood, a real purifier is necessary, for no real relief can be expected until the blood is thoroughly purified—the poisons that are causing the unbearable skin disease, eliminated entirely.

Eupepsia simply stimulates the digestive tract. By increasing the secretions, and starting the flow of digestive juices, Eupepsia prepares the food in your stomach for natural assimilation.

Eupepsia Tablets give you a sound, strong stomach and the benefits that go with it.

Get Eupepsia Tablets today. Begin taking them at once. Once you yourself the wonderful relief from all stomach trouble they provide.

THE TEST IS FREE

Try Eupepsia Tablets at our expense. We don't doubt the result. Go to your druggist today. Get a 30c box. After you have used the entire box, if you are not relieved of dyspepsia, indigestion, in any of their forms return the empty box to your druggist. He will promptly refund your money.

If your druggist does not carry Eupepsia Tablets, write us direct. Our guarantee holds good, however, when you purchase. A trial treatment and booklet on Stomach Trouble mailed free.

The Acme of Style and Value Is Attained in This Showing of Women's Winter Coats

Thousands to Choose From at a Broad Range of Prices

To please a critical woman, variety is one of the most necessary features in a collection of Coats. We have succeeded wonderfully in assembling an unusual variety of the season's most representative models. Add to this the assurance of exceptional value and you can realize why the majority of St. Louis women select their Winter Coats here.

Tomorrow We Feature Two Interesting Groups of Victoria Coats at

$29.75 and $39.75

To thousands of women, the name Victoria is synonymous to style and value. In these two interesting groups will be found the short sports Coats and the full length dressier models. The Sports Coats come in lengths from 30 to 36 inches and are developed of plush or fur fabrics. The full length Coats are made of velour, polo cloth, buck suede, broadcloth, silvertip, tweed and cheviot.

Some are smartly belted, others flared from shoulder to hem, or in some instances, draped from deep yokes. Collars of fur, plush, fur fabric and self-material add distinction. Coats are lined with beautiful plain and fancy materials. Colors that are fashionably popular are shown. All sizes for women and misses.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent: never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Don't Discourage the Producers.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

For some time, not only in every issue but almost on every page of every issue of our daily papers, we see something that is going to be done to bring down the high cost of living. This seemingly organized propaganda which inflames one class against another not only accomplishes nothing, but works a detriment to the mission for which it is meant. Propaganda is a great thing, but any sensible person knows that it can only temporarily affect something that is governed by supply and demand. Therefore, commodities that are forced to unnatural levels by effect on speculative sentiment will react much farther the other way at the cost of the consumers.

I am taking up again the much talked of prosecution of the packers and the situation it has brought about. To avoid being prosecuted for hoarding, the packers have caused their stocks to be depleted until now we have only an 18-day supply of pork products and part of that is not cured. In doing this they have stayed out of the markets, which has caused hogs to break from an average of $23 per cwt. to $12 per cwt. in about three months. Again, any sensible person knows this is not a natural effect, yet the producer who is selling at a loss, can do nothing, but take his medicine. The product that is now coming to market was made on high-priced feeds and high running expenses in general. And the terrific losses which have been sustained by producers will not soon be forgotten. And although he cannot dictate prices, he will retaliate by lessening his output, which will now prepare to do, which will react on the consumer later on by very much higher prices, while at the same time the consumer is getting very little benefit of this extreme drop, as the dealer thinks it beyond reason for him to sell his goods at a loss. But the producer has no means of protection.

The people have been led to believe that the prosecuting of profiteers and a little legislation would bring relief. And they are going to be very much disappointed when they find this is not the case. They will not be so easily convinced and satisfied when the next round begins.

I think it is high time to cease this propaganda and put the issue as it is before the people. By all means avoid situations arising that would discourage the producer, but rather encourage, in every legitimate way, if we expect any lasting relief from high prices.

CARROLL P. BOLAND.

Functional Legislators.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The scene enacted in Congress the other day relative to the passage of the prohibition bill over the President's veto shows conclusively that there is a mob of prohibition fanatics in Congress. They hardly gave time for the ink on the message to dry, much less to take time to give serious thought to the wise counsels of our worthy and far-seeing President, before they took our liberty, granted us under the Constitution of the U.S., away from us. They cry, "Start the machinery working at once, arrest the workmen taking strike action, and the man of means who can draw on his cellar and drink to his heart's content." On the other hand, how slow they are in acting on the rent and food profiteers—the very measure that should be acted on before prohibition or anything else is taken up. Two or three hundred officers ready to act on a moment's notice and arrest a man for drinking a glass of 2.75 beer, but not one arrest in the case of these rent and food robbers, who are gorging the very life out of the people.

LIBERTY.

A Charge of Inconsistency.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

After reading your editorial in the issue of Nov. 1 on Commissioner Roper's appeal for enforcement of the new prohibition law, I read the Weekly Health Talk of Health Commissioner Starkloff on the next page, in which he tells of the deadly effects of pneumonia and how the people may protect themselves against it. He says: "The use of alcohol is another weapon in the struggle against disease, to attack of pneumonia," and quotes the United States Public Health Service as saying it is "the hand maiden of pneumonia and there is none more certain or sure of success."

Now, what do you mean by permitting "this strange, tyrannical mania" to be exploited under the guise of a health talk? You know, of course, that such talk is only fanatical. You ask whether Attorney-General Palmer acted as a lawyer or as a prohibitionist when he approved the constitutionality of the prohibition law. Why do you not ask if Dr. Starkloff was acting as a physician or as a prohibitionist when he wrote that article? And do you not think that Mayor Kiel and Boss Schmitt ought to fire Dr. Starkloff because of this unwarranted reflection upon the business of their friends and supporters, since they landed so vigorously on Senator Spencer for voting for the prohibition law?

CONSTANT READER.

AMERICANISM WINS.

The most significant and encouraging victory in Tuesday's elections was that of Gov. Coolidge, Republican candidate for re-election to the governorship of Massachusetts.

This victory by an overwhelming plurality was a decisive verdict of the people of Massachusetts in favor of law and order, American principles and the sacredness of public service obligations. It was, in addition, a vote for the ratification of the peace treaty.

Gov. Coolidge not only ran on a platform unequivocally endorsing his stand and his action in the Boston police strike, but he himself was the embodiment of the issue of law and order and sound Americanism. His fearless and decisive action in breaking the police strike and suppressing riot and disorder made the issue so clear that there can be no mistake in the judgment of the outcome.

The Massachusetts Democrats emphasized the issue by criticizing Gov. Coolidge's action, and thus played to the riotous and revolutionary elements. They played to the anti-American Irish element by condemning the peace covenant in the interest of the Irish hyphenates. The party reaped the fruits of Henry Cabot Lodge.

Could there be a greater disservice than that of protracted deliberations of the peace conference than in the United States Senate.

Finally, the treaty with Germany was submitted to the Senate on July 10. It is still in the Senate, after 115 days. In other words, the Senate has already spent a week longer in discussing the ratification of the pact than the conference spent in drafting it.

And what is the result? May not this coal strike be included among the results? Why should the leader of the United Mine Workers be concerned with the public welfare when the leader of the majority party in the United States Senate is deaf, dumb and blind to the public welfare? From every part of the country, from rich and poor, from biggest financiers and humblest toilers, has come the same plea: Ratify the treaty! Give us peace! Let us get to work! But the prayers and petitions of the people have availed not with Senator Lodge. He has jugged and toyed with the welfare of mankind as if it were a plaything, and the grim consequence of his tragic failure is that this nation, exhausted and exasperated, has been brought to the verge of nervous prostration.

Could there be a greater disservice than that of Henry Cabot Lodge?

THE FOREIGNER'S GIFTS TO AMERICA.

Monday night was "Bulgarian Night" at the Arts and Crafts Exposition. Tableaux were staged depicting the village life of that Balkan land. Folk songs were sung, the singers dressed in native costume. The handicraft of the people was shown and quaint, old customs that have come down through the years.

The word, program, coldly and formally inadequate, doesn't describe it at all. The heart of Bulgaria was revealed in an intimate, tender portrayal. It was one of a series of nights arranged by the Americanization Committee for our foreign-born population.

Under the glow of it, Judge Allen, president of the Art League, made this observation: "How much are we enriched by the civilization brought to us by people of other lands, which is merged into our own civilization?" It was an apt and deserved tribute to the occasion, but if this joyous exclamation had been put in the form of a question, how should we answer it?

Let us try to answer it fairly. It is an old confession now that we have been remiss in our attitude towards the foreigner. We have looked upon him as an economic unit, a mere recruit to our productive and consuming forces. We have given him the opportunity concealed and established by our institutions, and that is no mean gift, but we have failed to give him much of ourselves. Also we have failed to profit ourselves by what he has brought to us.

We have overlooked the tremendous fact that the foreigner who comes here sincerely to find and make a place for himself brings many things besides his brawn and daily needs. He, too, is heir to all the ages. Dreary enough as his heritage may be, from the standpoint of justice and human privilege he, nevertheless, has a fine fortune to contribute to our estate. Every land has its own culture. No inventory can be attempted here. But whether be the composition of symphonies from silk and wool that we call rugs, or poesies of stained glass, or the creation of lace that seems like magic spun and caught, fables and legends of curious lore and music born of centuries of longing—all this and more is brought by the foreigner.

The so-called St. Louis Fuel Committee does not inspire the confidence of the retail coal dealers of St. Louis. It does not afford promise to them that they will be enabled to supply the needs of the people who even now are beginning to clamor at their yards.

Their organization, the Coal Service Bureau of St. Louis, met yesterday and sent a telegram to Fuel Administrator Garfield at Washington demanding "capable supervision" and suggesting the immediate appointment of Lieutenant-Governor Crossley to take charge of the situation.

Lieutenant-Governor Crossley was chairman of the Missouri Fuel Administration during the war. His experience qualifies him to act now. He, or someone equally efficient, should be appointed at once and given power to control the fuel situation.

It is, of course, important that the fuel requirements of the railroads be supplied, in order that there may be no interruption of traffic, but it is important also that the fuel needed for keeping the people from suffering be conserved.

LODGE'S STUPID LEADERSHIP.

The leaders of the coal miners are justly criticized for their utter disregard for the public, but the United States Senate views with the representatives of the miners in flagrant defiance of the public welfare, and in the leadership of Henry Cabot Lodge may be found a contempt for the public interest which surpassed that shown by the leadership of John L. Dill.

The indictment against the Senate and the Lodge leadership may be returned on the evidence of a few historical dates. The first of those dates is Jan. 18, the day the peace conference was called to order. The next date is May 6, when the draft of the peace treaty with Germany was completed. The conference spent 108 days fashioning that treaty, which, in many respects, was the most difficult instrument which statesmen ever undertook. The map of the world had to be blotted out and a new map written, and the manner in which the token supply, under the new fare schedule, has not been provided, may help to place the responsibility. The efficiency or inefficiency of an institution begins at the top.

Herbert Hoover charges the sugar scarcity to production, but, of course, he is mistaken. Any country that adopts prohibition at once becomes a land of milk and honey and roses and plenty and universal joy, as any prohibitionist can tell the world.

The six intervening weeks offer little comfort to the laggard who neglected to do his Christmas shopping before July 1.

Parents Can Gauge Children's Intelligence With Common-Sense Questions

PROF. EDWARD L. THORNDIKE'S HYPOTHESIS

The "Three R's" Not Sufficient Training for Children of 10 to 16 Years—Many Children With Excellent School Records, but Are Utterly Lacking in Knowledge of Everyday Questions of Life.

BY FAY STEVENSON.

HOW does your child between the ages of 10 and 16 measure up mentally to the average child?

A few days ago Prof. Edward L. Thorndike of Columbia University gave me a number of intelligence tests for the child between 3 and 5, which were printed on this page. Now he has a test which measures the child from 10 to 16.

Dr. Thorndike has long been known by his researches and writings in educational psychology. His work during the war as chairman of the Committee on Classification of Personnel in the army and since then as author of tests of intelligence used as a part of the system of entrance to Columbia College and as a member of the National Research Council's Committee on Tests adds a special interest to his discussion of intellect and its measurements.

"We are getting along in training the child in the three 'R's' is not enough," Dr. Thorndike told me yesterday afternoon. "What we want to do now is to measure him up on common sense questions to see if he knows the common, everyday questions of life which he ought to know for his age. Sometimes a child might have a very good record in his school studies and still be utterly lacking or behind the standard in these questions. Perhaps the best way to measure him up is to put him through a written test known as the Presey-Pressey system."

"In some cases," admitted Dr. Thorndike, "I think the test is a little difficult for the child of 10 or 11 to grade. I have not thought it out yet as a number of bright boys and girls of that age who can answer the questions as fast as they can write. The child from 12 to 15 should have no difficulty at all. But," and here Dr. Thorndike suppressed a smile, "it might just be that some of the daddies and mammas may have to think twice before they take the test. Why not play school, electing one member of the family to read the questions and time the test which is to take but 45 minutes?"

The first question has 20 numbers with 20 empty lines. A list of words is read, while those taking the test listen carefully but do not write them down. The child is told to do what L. This is the first list of words:

1. Hat, boy. Write on the first empty line the word that came after hat.

2. Mouse, chair. Write the word that came after mouse.

3. Cat, baby, cow. Write word after baby.

4. Paper, watch, ink. Write word after paper.

5. Horse, stone, window. Word after stone.

6. Ground, milk, desk, hand. Word after milk.

7. Lamp, kitten, tree, girl. Word after kitten.

8. River, clock, table, box. Word after river.

9. Street, glass, cloud, shelf. Word after glass.

10. Spoon, print, red, milk, green. Word after red.

11. Chalk, man, bag, book, sister. Word after man.

12. Mother, chair, think, best, rain. Word after think.

13. Run, 'ark, hard, pen, flower. Word after run.

14. Ball, shoes, sleep, sick, bright. Word after shoes.

15. Light, past, bed, dog, match, root. Word after bed.

16. Salmon, hill, plow, sky, ship, dress. Word after hill.

17. Ring, foot, jump, snow, flat, child. Word after ring.

18. Point, noise, cook, river, dead, long. Word after cook.

19. Pencil, quick, house, hill, run, store. Word after quick.

20. Grass, rain, woman, cloth, see, tree, warm. Word after woman.

The second question is to make a logical selection from 10 questions. Each question has a list of words and the child taking the test must underscore two words in the list that the first object is never without, the point being that the first object may have all the other things on the list, but must have two among the last to be up to normal conditions.

1. CAT—Fur, house, milk, claws, acorns, roots, flowers.

2. TREE—Apples, branches, pencil, words, margin, letter.

4. SCHOOL—Blackboard, teacher, window, pen, bell, schoolhouse, pupils.

6. STORE—Counter, clerk, cash register, advertisements, boxes, stove.

8. BUILDING—Windows, wood, chimney, wall, shingle, roof, stairs, shed.

7. DEBT—Mortgage, creditor, money, lawyer, collector, debtor, bankruptcy.

8. SICKNESS—Lameness, death, weakness, hospital, nurse, discomf ort, doctor.

9. GOVERNMENT—Capitol, Con gress, navy, freedom, King, Senate, tax.

10. FRIENDSHIP—Adoration, like ness, love, alliance, imitation, help fulness, worship.

Question No. 3 is given entirely to problems in arithmetic, which are to be worked out in the head and only the answer written. There are 20 questions in all. They are all based on the same line as the following example: If you spent 5 cents a day for a week and then twice as much each day of the next

The Sandman Story for To-night

BY MRS. F. A. WALKER

Miss Flopear's School.

ONE morning Mrs. Fox said to her husband: "Miss Flopear's Rabbit has a very nice school. She teaches them such nice manners, I think I will send little Reddy to her, for he is getting old enough to learn how to behave."

"Very well, my dear," said Mr. Fox. "But I do not want that young fellow spoiled. Why, yesterday, when he was out with me he actually tried to catch chicken. He would not let me get him back again, and was unprintable. Takes after his pa, I think."

"Perhaps he does," replied Mrs. Fox. "But he needs teaching, and Miss Flopear, I am sure, is the one to do it."

And so little Reddy Fox was sent to Miss Flopear's Rabbit's school to learn polite manners.

Miss Flopear daily taught them how to behave at the table and she taught them how to approach a garden fence with nice clean things and not hit them with a bed post, cabbage, but not a thing did she teach about catching ducks or chickens.

In fact, she did teach her scholars not to jump in the path of a hen or duck when they were out walking with their families.

"You must never be rude," she told them. "Always be polite and step aside to let others pass."

All this did little Reddy Fox learn, and never a thing did his parents know about it only that he no longer grinded his teeth and talked and ate his food without dropping it.

But one morning Mr. Fox awoke to the fact that Reddy Fox was quite grown up and not one hen or duck even a chicken had he ever caught.

"It is time you were taught something besides manners," said his father. "Today you will come with me to catch the path that leads to the duck pond. We will lift you right off the ground and take you to the duck pond."

Mr. Fox took Reddy Fox to the duck pond and taught him to lift himself up by the tail and take him to the duck pond.

When he awoke this morning, he found his son a fine specimen of a boy.

Mr. Fox got back out of the way to let his son have a chance to do all the catching, but what was his surprise when out from the bushes stepped Reddy and very politely said: "Good morning, Madam Duck."

"I hope you have had a fine swim," said Reddy, followed by his whole family, while Mr. Fox, who thought this was a very good idea, Reddy had been taught at Miss Flopear's school, expected to see his son capture the finest duckling of the lot.

But Reddy Fox had been taught to be polite and not chase the animals he met, so he calmly walked back and lay down beside his father in the bushes.

Mr. Fox was too astonished to chase Madam Duck. He just took Reddy Fox by the ear and walked him home. "A fine son we have, madam," he said to his wife; "and now this: Miss Flopear has taught

(Being the Confessions of the Seven-Hundredth Wife.)

By HELEN BOWLAND.

"Verily, I know Not WHY I Love Him," saith The Wife. "Yet There is None Other, in ALL the World, for Whom I Would Exchange Him!"

FOR lo, he regardeth me as his cunning, like a "floating rib," though I know in my heart that I am three-quarters of his vertebral bone.

Ye, while I must be a guardian unto him, he treateth me like an infant, and while I mother him, he "babymeth" me.

Behold, he scoffeth at my political opinions, and opineth that I choose a candidate, even as I choose a race horse, for his name and his beauty.

Ye, while the world, he is the only man who hath ever dared make mine of my NOSE!

He never observeth my clothes, save when there is a button missing; and of my newest and most stunning headdress, his only comment is, "Whaddit cost?"

He seldom inviteth me unto the theater, until I have covered him with hints and reproofs, and I doubt that he shall ever bring me flowers, until he cometh to place them on my sofa.

He regardeth my pet friends as "abominations" and the men who loved me before I married him are all either "boobs" or "dubs," in his sight.

"What is this job worth to you, man?" he asked.

"It's worth a good deal to me," he replied. "I've been out of work for some time, and I've scarcely a bob left."

"You'll get 30 shillings a week," the foreman continued. "Will you agree to give me 5 shillings a week for a month, if I make a favorable report? It's the usual thing."

Bliss sighed.

"If that's so," he consented. "I'll do it."

"Then just pull up at the pub yonder and we'll wet it," the foreman declared. "You handle the car all right. A little more confidence is all you want."

He realized with a sudden start that she was paler and not so well dressed.

"I've not enough money," Bliss announced desperately, "for two drinks."

The foreman scratched his chin reflectively.

"That's a pity," he said. "Never mind, I'll lend you a shilling. You can add it to the 5 shillings for the first week."

He produced the coin from a wash leather bag. Bliss pocketed it with a short laugh.

"Are you Welsh, Scotch or Semitic?" he inquired, as she entered the public house.

"I've got enough money," Bliss declared.

"It's my evening off," he declared.

"I wonder how it is that life is so difficult for some of us," she sighed frankly, "but why haven't you been to see me?"

"I was out last Sunday," he replied. "She nodded.

"You happened to come just when there was no one there, then," she remarked. "I'd left my address for you. Where are you going now?"

He realized with a sudden start that she was paler and not so well dressed.

"I've my evening off," he declared.

"I wonder how it is that life is so difficult for some of us," she sighed frankly, "but why haven't you been to see me?"

"I was out last Sunday," he replied. "She turned her head, her dark eyes met his. A moment afterward, under the coarse table cloth, their hands met, too. The little eating house seemed suddenly transformed.

All the warmth and splendor of life were there. It was, as a matter of fact, a very Bohemian little spot indeed. A man who had finished his dinner at an adjoining table had taken a mandolin from its case, and, leaning back, was making tinkling music. The people by whom they were surrounded were nearly all musicians, men and women, mostly young ones, some of whom were singing.

"Come with me and have some dinner," he begged. She shook her head doubtfully.

"There's a little place in the next street where we can dine for 10-pence," he went on eagerly. "Let's go along there, and we can have a talk. I can manage the theater, too, if you like; anyhow we can go to a picture palace."

"I can't pay for my dinner," she stipulated.

He laughed, and they turned away from the door behind him, towards a short laugh.

He led her to the little place he knew of—a tiny eating house in a back street, where, for some reason or other, everything was clean and a window was sometimes opened. They found a corner table and ordered their little repast with great care.

"You see," she explained, setting down the meal. "I've left Mr. Masters and I didn't find another place till this week."

"I've just left Mr. Masters?" he gasped.

She nodded.

"I couldn't help it," she said. "Perhaps I'll tell you all about it one day."

They were both hungry, and they frankly abandoned conversation while they ate their soup. Bliss was counting the coins in his trousers pocket with the fingers of his right hand.

The Curious Quest

By E. Phillips Oppenheim.

CHAPTER XIV (Continued.)

"FILL her up," he ordered, "have the plugs, test the sparkling, and I'll be with you in 10 minutes."

"The time is as it was told. Presently the foreman reappeared, wearing a coat and muffler.

"Climb up and take her out," he yawned. "We'll go down to Shepherd's Bush. You know the way?"

Bliss nodded. He drove off, rather nervously at first, but still without mishap. At Shepherd's Bush, his passenger left him for a few moments while he paid a call on his family. As they neared the garage on their return journey, the foreman struck his chimes.

"What is this job worth to you, man?" he asked.

"It's worth a good deal to me," he replied. "I've been out of work for some time, and I've scarcely a bob left."

"You'll get 30 shillings a week," the foreman continued. "Will you agree to give me 5 shillings a week for a month, if I make a favorable report? It's the usual thing."

"At last!" he cried, almost exultantly.

She shook her head at him.

"You are the most improvident person," she declared. "What do we want wine for?"

Nevertheless he had his way. They sipped the Medoc, a bottle of which cost 18 pence, almost reverently.

"Mind, I consider it wickedly extravagant," she protested.

Caught by a wave of remembrance, he laughed and closed his eyes. She looked at him and said, "I wonder how it is that life is so difficult for some of us."

"Sometimes it seems absolutely terrible. Daily wage and utter destitution. Do you know, I had 7 shillings in the world when I found this place?"

Speaking of Freaks of Nature: We Hear That Drake Is Laying for the Pikers

Pikers Romp Over Freshmen Team in 90-Minute Drill

Twenty-five yearlings worn out in long scrimmage with Rutherford's Regulars.

BACKS RIP THROUGH LINE

Conzelman, Pothoff and Berger gain consistently—Pony Backfield Stopped.

There are a lot of distasteful things for a freshman to do. The freshman wears a funny little cap, he carries everything for everybody, he is not permitted to converse with the co-eds on the campus, and he must at all times know his place.

But a Washington University first year student has not the slightest idea of what real abuse is until he joins Gorham Beck's football gridiron and runs into the Pioneers' field.

Slashing, which for three years has been taboo at the Pikeview, is a mild form of discomfort compared to the lot of the freshman on the gridiron.

Yesterday 25 "fresh" were offered up as victims to Rutherford's valley conference title contenders. A yearling entered the scrimmage and played until he was played out.

He was then relegated to the sidelines and another took his place. When it was over, realizing that the Pikeview varsity averages in weight were near 180 pounds you will see what these young Washington men had before them.

Yesterday Coach Rutherford ordered a 90-minute scrimmage with three times-out for blowing. For about 10 minutes the varsity with the pony backfield had difficulty in pushing the ball over for a touch-down. The "fresh" were playing well and breaking through the line frequently.

Enter the Regulars.

The performance was displeasing to the coach so the regular backs were called into service; and from then on it was a different story. Conzelman dazzled with his 25 to 40 yard broken field runs, Pothoff smashed and demolished at the line until it was of tissue paper strength and Berger skinned the tackles for consistent gains.

After two or three scores by the Pikers, the "fresh" were about exhausted and by two and three they were sent to the bench. The regulars came in, their places were filled by Beck's "sub" players who did yeoman duty until "done up" by the varsity attack as their teammates had been. Then the original shift returned to work.

All in all, it was shown, the most convincing work that the local players have shown in any workout this season. The freshman eleven which they faced was the strongest first year bunch of backs seen in competition inasmuch as it was augmented at the guards by Singleton and Deeds, two 200 pound players of some experience.

Three varsity regulars were on the side lines with injuries but they will return to the game in time to compete against Drake at Des Moines Saturday. Marguad has an infected foot which was lanceated yesterday but Dr. H. L. Land suggests that he may be in fit shape to oppose Capt. Sprang, Drake's star pivot man. Griesedieck's knee was still ailing while Haaslaun has a sore leg muscle. Grant was not available to report to the vacated end, and Bailey and Kremmer took care of the center duties.

Zink May Land a Berth.

All of the guards had an opportunity against the "fresh", but Cohen and Zink were in the lineup during the greater part of the long session. Cohen was kicked in the leg toward the close of practice, but failed to be assisted from the field, as the men came at a nerve center, contracting the muscles. His leg will be sore for a day or two, but will not keep him from practice. Zink does not yet know if he is eligible to play in the top shape but looked very good at the vacated holes in the "fresh" line.

During the last 20 minutes of practice the freshmen took the ball and ripped through the line for gains which netted them a touchdown. The Pikers were all in after the 70-minute offensive grind, whereas the attacking force had just had a side-line rest. This condition did not prevent Rutherford from raising quite a rumpus, and thereafter Beck's men could not gain.

This afternoon's scrimmage will again be held in just about a large dose of cards. Those who are here will go through a long signal drill, their departure being scheduled for 5 p.m. The student body has planned to assemble at the Wabash Station to see the grand departure. The coach plans signal drill in Des Moines Friday morning.

CENTRAL HIGH ELEVEN BEATS PRINCIPIA 40-0

Coach Walker's Central High School team had no difficulty in romping over the Principia Academy forces at High School Field, yesterday afternoon. Central defeated the Christian Indians, 40-0, and used a large number of substitutes in the game. Bill and Zimmerman, Central regulars, were unable to play because of minor hurts.

The lineup: Positions: Principia, Assalone... Left end... Hall, Givens... Left guard... Bauer, Schmitz... Left tackle... Johnson, Newson... Right guard... Bauer, Schmitz, Givens... Right tackle... Dempsey Accepts $125,000 Offer to Meet Joe Beckett

Bout Seems Improbable, However, as Either Beckett or Carpenter Will Demand a Fortune Before Risking Match With Titleholder in This Country.

By John E. Wray.

JACK DEMPSEY has signed a contract calling for his appearance in New Orleans on March 17 in a fight with either Joe Beckett or Georges Carpenter, according to an announcement issued by Dominick Torrichi, Crescent City promoter, last night. Dempsey is to receive $125,000, so the story runs.

But before Jack puts hands on that easy change the proposed Brennan match holds out.

Inability to meet the money demands of Beckett or Carpenter.

Refusal of both foreign fighters to fight Dempsey in America.

Failure of the promoters to come through with the sum needed to finance the fight.

Possibility of other desirable offers during Dempsey in the meantime.

Dempsey signed the New Orleans contract yesterday, but signing contracts is one of the easiest things fighters and fight promoters do. Go through with them hasn't been deemed compulsory in the past.

Overhead Might Reach $400,000

THE financing of this event would be more costly than the Willard-Dempsey affair, which was a "blowout." By the time Carpenter or Beckett has been persuaded to fight there, Nov. 6, against Joe Jeanette, one of the toughest birds that ever entered the ring, Jeanette is past the prime, but he has seen much fighting and there has been none to make him run. It was Jeanette, the "wise men" slipped into the ring, at a New York benefit bout, against Jack Dempsey, when the regular man named as Jeanette's opponent lost.

When Dempsey climbed through the ropes he found facing him none other than smiling Black Joe, ready to go on. But Dempsey's manager off the ropes, the referee decided the proposition half was bad and pulled his man out of the ring in a jiffy.

If Fulton beats Jeanette decisively or stops him, it means that Dempsey will have to recognize Fred and give him a title match.

Here's a Better Bout.

IMMEDIATELY with the Torch announcement last night: came a bulletin from New Orleans stating that $75,000 would be posted to guarantee Dempsey's end of a championship match, with Knockout Bill Brennan as his proposed opponent, the bout to take place during the racing season, presumably in January or February. The only condition is that promoter Johnny Abrams makes it that Brennan win his scheduled match with Tom McMahon Dec. 1.

This is one of several plums that will be dangled in front of the champion to win him from his allegiance to the Torrichi contract. Dempsey has already shown where Brennan stands. Jack bumped Bill off the ropes, the referee deciding that Brennan was too badly injured to continue the fight.

It was in this bout that Dempsey, according to the story, hit Brennan on the jaw so hard that he broke Bill's ankle. At any rate, it was the condition of Brennan's foot that led the official to stop the show, after Brennan had proven the best little Reception General in the game. It's something to be proud of, as it lasted six rounds and retained consciousness with Dempsey in the ring.

Dempsey will have a hard time restraining himself from accepting

This Season, Still Respected
by Missouri U.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 5.—The undefeated University of Missouri football team will meet the Nebraska team, which hasn't won a game in the past, but a victory over the Nebraskans in any year is an event, but victory this year, the year of Nebraska's withdrawal from the conference and Schulte's first as pilot of the new eleven, would be, in the eyes of Tiger fans, an epoch-making achievement.

The seat sale for the Nebraska game is already approaching the $500 mark, and applications continue to pour in. Temporary boxes are being built on Rollins Field, nev^t Saturday.

That's one way of looking at it.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 5.—A rupture of one of the arteries feeding the brain, causing a cerebral hemorrhage, resulted in the death of Tommy Perry, Chicago lightweight boxer, Monday, according to Coroner
M. Franklin, following a postmor-tem examination.

Perry collapsed in the tenth and last round of his bout Friday with Sammy Marino, following a light blow to the skull. An inquest will be held tomorrow.

Missourians know that America will be a tough battle for the Huskers, for the Aggies showed their strength. They point to the fact that they lost to the Tigers, 10 to 0, but a Schulte victory was expected.
Of course, Nebraska's defeat, coupled with the brilliant showing made by the Tigers on the same day, has sent

Only Four More Days of Our Dollar Sale
of Tires & Tubes

Nov. 5th
6th, 7th, 8th

THIS sale has not only been an overwhelming success, but has smashed all tire sales records in this country. It brings tire prices right down to rock bottom. Can you imagine getting two high-grade guaranteed tires practically for the price of one? That is what we offer. To every customer buying one Tire and one Tube at the regular list prices during the next four days we will give an additional tire of any make in our store for $1.00 and an additional tube for $1.00, the only condition being that both a tire and a tube are purchased because this is a combination offer.

Literally thousands of car owners have taken advantage of this sale during the four days it has already run. The sale has set a pace for value-giving that no ordinary tire store could hope to approach and it is only because we are one of the great Keystone Chain Stores and benefit by their enormous purchasing power that we can conduct such a sale.

This offer covers every tire in our store, both "firsts" and "blemished," non-skid and plain, in all sizes. And, remember, the tires are all strictly guaranteed and the most popular makes in the country, including

Fisk, Federal, Goodyear, Goodrich, Cupples, Firestone,
Newcastle, McGraw, National Speedway

and Many Other Well-Known Makes.

CORDS AND FABRICS

Take your choice—nothing reserved—all are

FULLY GUARANTEED

Motorists using sizes 34x4½, 35x4½, 36x4½, 33x5, 35x5 and 37x5 will find here an especially large assortment.

Some makes and sizes are limited in quantity and prices are therefore subject to stock on hand.

FOR EXAMPLE

The regular retail price for a Firestone Tire, size 30x3½, is $20.00, and the regular retail price for a Firestone Tube, size 30x3½, is $1.00. If you buy one of each at these prices, we give you an additional tire for $1.00 and an additional tube for $1.00. The same applies to other makes and all sizes of any tire or tube we carry in stock.

ONLY TWO TIRES AND TWO TUBES WILL BE SOLD TO A CUSTOMER UNDER THIS OFFER

Camel

CIGARETTES

Camels are full-bodied, but so mellow-mild and smooth you'll call them a cigarette revelation! They are a constant delight!

YOU'LL prefer Camel Cigarettes expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos to either kind smoked straight. Your taste will prove that!

Camels are so exceptional in flavor, in fragrance and in mellowess that you quickly realize their remarkable quality.

You may gratify your keenest desires to smoke liberally—Camel Cigarettes will not tire your taste!

Your enjoyment increases as you get to know Camels better—they return such generous cigarette satisfaction.

Camels certainly fit your taste exactly as if they had been made for it!

Camels are unlike any cigarette you ever smoked. For instance, they leave no unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or cigarette odor.

In fact Camels are in a class by themselves!
That's why we ask you to compare Camels with any cigarette in the world at any price!

You will not look for or expect premiums, coupons or gifts. You'll prefer Camel quality!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

THE AVERAGE CITIZEN.
He can't afford a motor car:
His income is meagre,
And every day expenses are Beyond his means already.
The cost of gas and oil this fall
Would simply paralyse one;
He can't afford a car at all,
And that is why he buys one.

He can't afford to get his lunch
At fancy eating places
Frequented by the Wall Street bunch
With large and mottled faces,
He can't afford to go the gait
Of follows that he meets there
And that is most unfortunate
Because he always eats there.

He can't afford to wear silk hose
And handsewed linen collars,
Or swagger custom tailored clothes
That cost a hundred dollars.
He gets but mild and meager pay
And knows he ought to hoard it,
But he will always dress that way
Because he can't afford it.

Some day, of course, he's going bust
He sees the crash impending,
But just the time he meets he must Contingency cash spending.
He looks like an aristocrat
He's always smart and snappy;
He's just a sucker, but at that Perhaps he's just as happy.

IT'S THE FASHION.

Now the X-... Massets bees are

Another Advantage of Faust Instant Coffee and Tea

Just imagine making your coffee and tea in this way:—“A tiny bit of powder in the cup, add boiling water, and serve.” Surely it is a simple recipe. It comes away with pot-annoyance, cooking and waste.

That's how Faust Instant Coffee and Tea are prepared. And Faust Instant is making better, easier-to-prepare meals in thousands of homes. It is a brand new idea, but it required only one trial for discerning folks to see the advantages of Faust Instant over the old form. Besides offering greater convenience, Faust Instant has the rarest of flavors, the highest quality possible. Faust Instant is positively not a substitute.
